The Knowledge Bank at The Ohio State University

Ohio State Engineer

Title: Texnikoi Awards Plaque to Shank

Issue Date: 1942-11

Publisher: Ohio State University, College of Engineering

Citation: Ohio State Engineer, vol. 26, no. 1 (November, 1942), 20.

URI: http://hdl.handle.net/1811/35874
TEXNIKOI AWARDS PLAQUE TO SHANK

Last spring, Texnikoi gave its annual freshman award to Robert Shank. This award, a bronze plaque, is given each year to that freshman, enrolled in the College of Engineering, who in the opinion of the members of Texnikoi is the most outstanding. The award is given on the basis of time devoted to extra-curricular activities and scholarship. Every freshman engineer is considered by Texnikoi, and credit is given for each extra-curricular activity engaged in according to its importance on the campus, and the time and effort put into the activity by the student.

Texnikoi, founded in 1923, is the activities honorary for senior engineers. Those seniors in the Engineering College who have been outstanding on the Engineers’ Quadrangle, and who exhibited superior personality, honesty, and have all around ability are elected to Texnikoi.

Robert Shank was awarded the Texnikoi plaque for his active participation in Quadrangle Jesters, the Makio, Baker Hall Council, freshman tennis, and the Y.M.C.A. He was president of the pledge class of Alpha Tau Omega Fraternity. He was also elected to Phi Eta Sigma, freshman scholastic honorary, and to Romophos, sophomore activities honorary.

Bob Shank is continuing his work, in the College of Engineering, towards a degree in mechanical engineering, this year.

Quad Jesters—

January 30, 1943, was the date set for the first production by the Quad Jesters at an organization meeting, October 14. Page Boyer was appointed director for the coming engineers’ stage extravaganza. Committee heads appointed were: Bud Link, publicity, and Bob Jones, orchestra.