KOKOSING CHAPTER 2009 ANNUAL FIELD FINDS WINNERS

The Kokosing Chapter of the ASO holds field finds contests at each monthly meeting during the year. 1st, 2nd and 3rd place monthly winners of the Flint, Small Flint, Flint Tool, Stone & Slate categories are eligible to compete in the annual Chapter contest. Winners of the 2009 annual contest are shown below with their finds.

Fred Groseclose won the Small Flint category with an Archaic fractured base bifurcate 13/16" long (upper left). Fred also won the Flint Tool category with an Archaic thumb Scraper made from jewel quality Flintridge flint 13/8" x 11/8" (center). Cindy Sperry won the Slate Category with a miniature green slate pendant 13/8" long (upper right). Cindy also won the Stone Category with a green stone Adena celt 43/4" long (lower left). Walt Sperry won the Flint category with a colorful Flint ridge, expanded notch Archaic bevel (lower right).

Fred Groseclose Cindy Sperry Walt Sperry

Knox County
Mount Vernon
Kokosing Chapter
Archaeological Society of Ohio

Kokosing Chapter Logo