SYMPOSIUM:
Originalism and the Jury

Articles
Foreword
Suja A. Thomas .......................................................... 883

Making the Framers’ Case, and a Modern Case, For Jury Involvement in Habeas Adjudication
Douglas A. Berman ...................................................... 887

Originalism and Summary Judgment
Brian T. Fitzpatrick ...................................................... 919

Juries and Originalism: Giving “Intelligible Content” to the Right to a Jury Trial
Judge Nancy Gertner .................................................... 935

Ancient Juries and Modern Judges: Originalism’s Uneasy Relationship with the Jury
Joan L. Larsen ........................................................... 959

The Lawfinding Power of Colonial American Juries
William E. Nelson .......................................................... 1003

On the Question of a Complexity Exception to the Seventh Amendment Guarantee of Trial by Jury
James Oldham ............................................................. 1031

Business and Jury Trials: The Framers’ Vision Versus Modern Reality
Gene Schaerr & Jed Brinton ............................................ 1055

A Limitation on Congress: “In Suits at common law”
Suja A. Thomas .......................................................... 1071