Articles

Samuel Zell, the Chicago Tribune, and the Emergence of the S ESOP: Understanding the Tax Advantages and Disadvantages of S ESOPs
Michael S. Knoll .............................................................. 519

Interstate Recognition of Parentage in a Time of Disharmony: Same-Sex Parent Families and Beyond
Courtney G. Joslin .............................................................. 563

Notes

Arresting DNA: The Evolving Nature of DNA Collection Statutes and their Fourth Amendment Justifications
John D. Biancamano ........................................................... 619

But She Spoke in an Un-ladylike Fashion!: Parsing through the Standards of Evidentiary Admissibility in Civil Lawsuits after the 1994 Amendments to the Rape Shield Law
Lauren M. Hilsheimer .......................................................... 661

“Ain’t No Snitches Ridin’ Wit’ Us”: How Deception in the Fourth Amendment Triggered the Stop Snitching Movement
Jamie Masten ................................................................. 705

“Fixing” Executive Compensation: Will Congress, Shareholder Activism, or the New SEC Disclosure Rules Change the Way Business is Done in American Boardrooms?
Stephen M. Salley .............................................................. 757