OHIO STATE JOURNAL OF CRIMINAL LAW

Volume 7 Number 2 Spring 2010

SYMPOSIUM

WHAT'S WRONG WITH THE CRIMINAL JUSTICE SYSTEM AND HOW WE CAN FIX IT

Introduction
  Andrew D. Leipold ................................................................. 515

Controlling the Damage Done by Crawford v. Washington: Three Constructive Proposals
  Donald A. Dripps ................................................................. 521

Coming Home: Accommodating the Special Needs of Military Veterans to the Criminal Justice System
  Judge Michael Daly Hawkins .................................................. 563

Two Windows into Innocence
  George C. Thomas III .......................................................... 575

Eyewitness Identifications and State Courts as Guardians Against Wrongful Conviction
  Sandra Guerra Thompson ....................................................... 603

COMMENTARY SYMPOSIUM

CRIMINAL LAW DEFENSE, ETHICS, AND THE CLIENT WHO PLANS TO LIE

Introduction
  Robert Batay ................................................................. 637

Ethically Representing a Lying Cooperator: Disclosure as the Nuclear Deterrent
  Bruce A. Green ................................................................. 639

The Role of the Defense Attorney: Not Just an Advocate
  Roberta K. Flowers ............................................................ 647

Defense Counsel and Plea Bargain Perjury
  Kevin C. McMunigal ........................................................... 653
My Client, the Cooperator, Lied: Now What?

_Ellen Yaroshefsky_ ................................................................. 659

5K1.1 to be Obtained by Perjury—What to Do, What to Do?

_John Wesley Hall, Jr._ ............................................................. 667

Cutting Bait

_Fritz Scheller_ ........................................................................... 673

Constructing Systemic Safeguards Against Informant Perjury

_Peter A. Joy_ .............................................................................. 677

“It’s Not My Problem?” Wrong: Prosecutors Have an Important Ethical Role to Play

_Rory K. Little_ ........................................................................... 685

The Cooperating Witness Who Lies—A Challenge to Defense Lawyers, Prosecutors, and Judges

_Monroe H. Freedman_ ................................................................ 739

COMMENTARIES

Crime Music

_Bennett Capers_ .......................................................................... 749

The Prosecutor and Post-Conviction Claims of Innocence: DNA and Beyond?

_Douglas H. Ginsburg and Hyland Hunt_ ....................................... 771

After the Implosion: Trailing-Edge Guidelines for a New Era

_Mark Osler_ ................................................................................ 795

REVIEWS

The Role of History

_Thomas K. Clancy_ ..................................................................... 811

Fear and Trembling in Criminal Judgment

_Samuel H. Pillsbury_ .................................................................. 827

DAVID H. BODIKER LECTURE SERIES ON CRIMINAL JUSTICE

What Are We Doing to the Children?: An Essay on Juvenile (In)justice

_Michael E. Tigar_ ......................................................................... 849