

Farm Science Review

Herrick Archives Buildings S 21/25

1. General

These are one-story prefabricated metal buildings erected in the summer of 1972 for the Farm Science Review.

Except for S 22, these buildings remain the property of the exhibitors and are subject to removal or relocation.

Building S 22 is the property of the University, but it is of such nature that it, too, may be temporary as to its existence or location.

2. Location

Locations of these buildings are shown on the sketch below.
