

The Knowledge Bank at The Ohio State University

Ohio State Engineer

Title: Quadrangle Jesters

Issue Date: May-1937

Publisher: Ohio State University, College of Engineering

Citation: Ohio State Engineer, vol. 20, no. 6 (May, 1937), 22.

URI: <http://hdl.handle.net/1811/35411>

Appears in Collections: Ohio State Engineer: Volume 20, no. 6 \(May, 1937\)

Quadrangle Jesters

Tickets are now on sale for that hit of the season, "Charley's Aunt." The date is May 14; the place, University Hall Chapel. Rehearsals are now being held in the chapel and the cast is putting on the finishing touches to what promises to be the outstanding production in the history of Quadrangle Jesters. Every department of the engineering college is represented in either the cast, the "Pony Ballet" or the production staff.

The cast, twelve in number, was selected from a large group of aspiring young actors and actresses. They have been working overtime to give you the utmost in the portrayal of the characters involved in this hilarious comedy.

The broad shouldered Terpsechorean ballet dancers who have been tripping the light fantastic for many a weary day, promise to be an outstanding part of the program. In fact they will guarantee to have the audience rolling in the aisles.

The production staff have been giving freely of their time in securing scenery, selecting wardrobes, and running here, there and everywhere for those things which will assure you an evening of mirth.

Last but not least is the very able and talented young directress, Miss Joan Younger (Chief's daughter), who has tirelessly directed her efforts toward making the play a success.

Each separate unit of the Quadrangle Jesters is striving to outdo the other. The result will be a very fine way to spend Friday evening, May 14. We'll be seeing you there.