Coco Fusco, New York-based interdisciplinary artist, writer, and associate professor in the fine arts program at Parsons The New School for Design, gave the opening keynote lecture at the conference, Human Rights: Confronting Images and Testimonies, sponsored by the Mershon Center and held at the Wexner Center for the Arts on March 4 and 5, 2010.

Coco Fusco, interdisciplinary artist, writer, and associate professor in the fine arts program at Parsons The New School for Design delivered a lecture titled "Torture, the Feminine Touch: Exploring Military Interrogation as Interculture Performance" as part of the conference on Human Rights: Confronting Images and Testimonies. The conference, sponsored by the Mershon Center, was organized by Ann Hamilton, professor of art, Wendy Hesford, associate professor of English, and Amy Shuman, professor of English and anthropology. It was held over two days at the Wexner Center for the Arts.