

News

1328 Dover Road, Wooster, Ohio 44691-4000 • Phone (330) 264-3911, (800) 647-8383 (Ohio only)
• Fax (330) 262-7634

For immediate release

Contact: Frances Whited
Public Relations Coordinator
(330) 264-3911 ext. 1216

Area student graduates from Ohio State ATI

(Wooster, Ohio) March 20, 2000 -- Brett Bentley of Salem graduated Winter Quarter 2000 from The Ohio State University Agricultural Technical Institute with an Associate of Applied Science degree in turfgrass management. A graduate of West Branch High School, he is the son of Roger and Sally Bentley.

Ohio State ATI is an associate degree granting program within the College of Food, Agricultural, and Environmental Sciences at The Ohio State University. Students participate in a curriculum that includes general and basic studies, hands-on experience and a paid industry internship.

Ohio State ATI is the largest institution of its kind in the U.S., enrolling more than 1,000 students and offering 25 programs of study. Ohio State ATI maintains a 99 percent job placement rate for all graduates within four months of graduation.

News

1328 Dover Road, Wooster, Ohio 44691-4000 • Phone (330) 264-3911, (800) 647-8383 (Ohio only)
• Fax (330) 262-7634

For immediate release

Contact: Frances Whited
Public Relations Coordinator
(330) 264-3911 ext. 1216

Area student graduates from Ohio State ATI

(Wooster, Ohio) March 20, 2000 -- Benjamin Blosser of Lancaster graduated Winter Quarter 2000 from The Ohio State University Agricultural Technical Institute with an Associate of Applied Science degree in crop management. A 1997 graduate of Amanda-Clearcreek High School, he is the son of Noah and Joyce Blosser.

Ohio State ATI is an associate degree granting program within the College of Food, Agricultural, and Environmental Sciences at The Ohio State University. Students participate in a curriculum that includes general and basic studies, hands-on experience and a paid industry internship.

Ohio State ATI is the largest institution of its kind in the U.S., enrolling more than 1,000 students and offering 25 programs of study. Ohio State ATI maintains a 99 percent job placement rate for all graduates within four months of graduation.

News

1328 Dover Road, Wooster, Ohio 44691-4000 • Phone (330) 264-3911, (800) 647-8383 (Ohio only)
• Fax (330) 262-7634

For immediate release

Contact: Frances Whited
Public Relations Coordinator
(330) 264-3911 ext. 1216

Area students graduate from Ohio State ATI

(Wooster, Ohio) March 20, 2000 – Three Elyria area students graduated Winter Quarter 2000 from The Ohio State University Agricultural Technical Institute. They are:

- T. J. Denes of Sullivan, who graduated with an Associate of Applied Science degree in construction. A 1997 graduate of Black River High School, he is the son of Tom and Sandy Denes.
- Adam Jalowiec of Elyria, who graduated with an Associate of Applied Science degree in turfgrass management. A 1995 graduate of Keystone High School, he is the son of Jim and Louise Jalowiec.
- Ben Coghlan of LaGrange, who graduated with an Associate of Applied Science degree in power and equipment. A 1997 graduate of Keystone High School, he is the son of James and Patricia Coghlan.

Ohio State ATI is an associate degree granting program within the College of Food, Agricultural, and Environmental Sciences at The Ohio State University. Students participate in a curriculum that includes general and basic studies, hands-on experience and a paid industry internship.

-more-

Ohio State ATI is the largest institution of its kind in the U.S., enrolling more than 1,000 students and offering 25 programs of study. Ohio State ATI maintains a 99 percent job placement rate for all graduates within four months of graduation.

News

1328 Dover Road, Wooster, Ohio 44691-4000 • Phone (330) 264-3911, (800) 647-8383 (Ohio only)
• Fax (330) 262-7634

For immediate release

Contact: Frances Whited
Public Relations Coordinator
(330) 264-3911 ext. 1216

Area student graduates from Ohio State ATI

(Wooster, Ohio) March 20, 2000 -- Joshua Click of Ironton graduated Winter Quarter 2000 from The Ohio State University Agricultural Technical Institute with an Associate of Applied Science degree in landscape contracting and construction. A 1997 graduate of Ironton High School, he is the son of Jeff and Elaine Click.

Ohio State ATI is an associate degree granting program within the College of Food, Agricultural, and Environmental Sciences at The Ohio State University. Students participate in a curriculum that includes general and basic studies, hands-on experience and a paid industry internship.

Ohio State ATI is the largest institution of its kind in the U.S., enrolling more than 1,000 students and offering 25 programs of study. Ohio State ATI maintains a 99 percent job placement rate for all graduates within four months of graduation.

News

1328 Dover Road, Wooster, Ohio 44691-4000 • Phone (330) 264-3911, (800) 647-8383 (Ohio only)
• Fax (330) 262-7634

For immediate release

Contact: Frances Whited
Public Relations Coordinator
(330) 264-3911 ext. 1216

Area student graduates from Ohio State ATI

(Wooster, Ohio) March 20, 2000 -- Heather Cole of Crestline graduated Winter Quarter 2000 from The Ohio State University Agricultural Technical Institute with an Associate of Applied Science degree in crop services. A 1994 graduate of Colonel Crawford High School, she is the daughter of James and Shirley Cole.

Ohio State ATI is an associate degree granting program within the College of Food, Agricultural, and Environmental Sciences at The Ohio State University. Students participate in a curriculum that includes general and basic studies, hands-on experience and a paid industry internship.

Ohio State ATI is the largest institution of its kind in the U.S., enrolling more than 1,000 students and offering 25 programs of study. Ohio State ATI maintains a 99 percent job placement rate for all graduates within four months of graduation.

News

1328 Dover Road, Wooster, Ohio 44691-4000 • Phone (330) 264-3911, (800) 647-8383 (Ohio only)
• Fax (330) 262-7634

For immediate release

Contact: Frances Whited
Public Relations Coordinator
(330) 264-3911 ext. 1216

Area students graduate from Ohio State ATI

(Wooster, Ohio) March 20, 2000 – Two Greenville area students graduated Winter Quarter 2000 from The Ohio State University Agricultural Technical Institute. They are:

- Nick Wills of Greenville, who graduated with an Associate of Science degree in agricultural business. A 1997 graduate of Greenville Senior High School, he is the son of Ronald and Diane Wills.
- Beth Meier of Greenville, who graduated with an Associate of Applied Science degree in horse production and management. A 1997 graduate of Greenville Senior High School, she is the daughter of Dale and Karen Meier.

Ohio State ATI is an associate degree granting program within the College of Food, Agricultural, and Environmental Sciences at The Ohio State University. Students participate in a curriculum that includes general and basic studies, hands-on experience and a paid industry internship.

Ohio State ATI is the largest institution of its kind in the U.S., enrolling more than 1,000 students and offering 25 programs of study. Ohio State ATI maintains a 99 percent job placement rate for all graduates within four months of graduation.

News

1328 Dover Road, Wooster, Ohio 44691-4000 • Phone (330) 264-3911, (800) 647-8383 (Ohio only)
• Fax (330) 262-7634

For immediate release

Contact: Frances Whited
Public Relations Coordinator
(330) 264-3911 ext. 1216

Area students graduate from Ohio State ATI

(Wooster, Ohio) March 20, 2000 – Five Wooster area students graduated Winter Quarter 2000 from The Ohio State University Agricultural Technical Institute. They are:

- Nathan Fair of Shreve, who graduated with an Associate of Applied Science degree in dairy cattle production and management. A 1997 graduate of Triway High School, he is the son of Bill and Deb Fair.
- Jennifer Hufford of Wooster, who graduated with an Associate of Applied Science degree in nursery management. She is the daughter of Steve and Barb Hufford.
- Lisa Oneacre of Doylestown, who graduated with an Associate of Applied Science degree in landscape contracting and construction. A 1992 graduate of Triway High School, she is the daughter of Donald and Mary Jo Beckler and the wife of Chad Oneacre.
- Wes Weirick of Wooster, who graduated with an Associate of Applied Science degree in turfgrass management. A 1997 graduate of Waynedale High School, he is the son of Alvin and Wendy Weirick.

-more-

- Emily Yoders of Wooster, who graduated with an Associate of Science degree in horticultural science and agricultural business. A 1996 graduate of Wooster High School, she is the daughter of Mark and Susanne Yoders.

Ohio State ATI is an associate degree granting program within the College of Food, Agricultural, and Environmental Sciences at The Ohio State University. Students participate in a curriculum that includes general and basic studies, hands-on experience and a paid industry internship. Ohio State ATI is the largest institution of its kind in the U.S., enrolling more than 1,000 students and offering 25 programs of study. Ohio State ATI maintains a 99 percent job placement rate for all graduates within four months of graduation.

News

1328 Dover Road, Wooster, Ohio 44691-4000 • Phone (330) 264-3911, (800) 647-8383 (Ohio only)
• Fax (330) 262-7634

For immediate release

Contact: Frances Whited
Public Relations Coordinator
(330) 264-3911 ext. 1216

Area students graduate from Ohio State ATI

(Wooster, Ohio) March 20, 2000 – Two Delphos area students graduated Winter Quarter 2000 from The Ohio State University Agricultural Technical Institute. They are:

- Matthew Hedrick of Delphos, who graduated with an Associate of Applied Science degree in turfgrass management. A 1995 graduate of Elida High School, he is the son of Dennis and Rosie Hedrick.
- Alan Wrasman of Ft. Jennings, who graduated with an Associate of Applied Science degree in beef and swine production and management. A 1997 graduate of Ft. Jennings Local High School, he is the son of Ted and Diane Wrasman.

Ohio State ATI is an associate degree granting program within the College of Food, Agricultural, and Environmental Sciences at The Ohio State University. Students participate in a curriculum that includes general and basic studies, hands-on experience and a paid industry internship.

Ohio State ATI is the largest institution of its kind in the U.S., enrolling more than 1,000 students and offering 25 programs of study. Ohio State ATI maintains a 99 percent job placement rate for all graduates within four months of graduation.

News

1328 Dover Road, Wooster, Ohio 44691-4000 • Phone (330) 264-3911, (800) 647-8383 (Ohio only)
• Fax (330) 262-7634

For immediate release

Contact: Frances Whited
Public Relations Coordinator
(330) 264-3911 ext. 1216

Area student graduates from Ohio State ATI

(Wooster, Ohio) March 20, 2000 -- Devon Dinger of Massillon graduated Winter Quarter 2000 from The Ohio State University Agricultural Technical Institute with an Associate of Applied Science degree in horse production and management. A 1997 graduate of Tuslaw High School, she is the daughter of Jeff and Deborah Dinger.

Ohio State ATI is an associate degree granting program within the College of Food, Agricultural, and Environmental Sciences at The Ohio State University. Students participate in a curriculum that includes general and basic studies, hands-on experience and a paid industry internship.

Ohio State ATI is the largest institution of its kind in the U.S., enrolling more than 1,000 students and offering 25 programs of study. Ohio State ATI maintains a 99 percent job placement rate for all graduates within four months of graduation.

News

1328 Dover Road, Wooster, Ohio 44691-4000 • Phone (330) 264-3911, (800) 647-8383 (Ohio only)
• Fax (330) 262-7634

For immediate release

Contact: Frances Whited
Public Relations Coordinator
(330) 264-3911 ext. 1216

Area student graduates from Ohio State ATI

(Wooster, Ohio) March 20, 2000 -- Brad Gibney of Novelty graduated Winter Quarter 2000 from The Ohio State University Agricultural Technical Institute with an Associate of Applied Science degree in landscape construction. A 1993 graduate of West Geauga High School, he is the son of Grant and Sandra Gibney.

Ohio State ATI is an associate degree granting program within the College of Food, Agricultural, and Environmental Sciences at The Ohio State University. Students participate in a curriculum that includes general and basic studies, hands-on experience and a paid industry internship.

Ohio State ATI is the largest institution of its kind in the U.S., enrolling more than 1,000 students and offering 25 programs of study. Ohio State ATI maintains a 99 percent job placement rate for all graduates within four months of graduation.

News

1328 Dover Road, Wooster, Ohio 44691-4000 • Phone (330) 264-3911, (800) 647-8383 (Ohio only)
• Fax (330) 262-7634

For immediate release

Contact: Frances Whited
Public Relations Coordinator
(330) 264-3911 ext. 1216

Area student graduates from Ohio State ATI

(Wooster, Ohio) March 20, 2000 -- Scott Hallett of Stow graduated Winter Quarter 2000 from The Ohio State University Agricultural Technical Institute with an Associate of Applied Science degree in turfgrass management. A 1993 graduate of Stow High School, he is the son of Doran and Nancy Hallett.

Ohio State ATI is an associate degree granting program within the College of Food, Agricultural, and Environmental Sciences at The Ohio State University. Students participate in a curriculum that includes general and basic studies, hands-on experience and a paid industry internship.

Ohio State ATI is the largest institution of its kind in the U.S., enrolling more than 1,000 students and offering 25 programs of study. Ohio State ATI maintains a 99 percent job placement rate for all graduates within four months of graduation.

News

1328 Dover Road, Wooster, Ohio 44691-4000 • Phone (330) 264-3911, (800) 647-8383 (Ohio only)
• Fax (330) 262-7634

For immediate release

Contact: Frances Whited
Public Relations Coordinator
(330) 264-3911 ext. 1216

Area student graduates from Ohio State ATI

(Wooster, Ohio) March 20, 2000 -- Tim Hughes of Doylestown graduated Winter Quarter 2000 from The Ohio State University Agricultural Technical Institute with an Associate of Applied Science degree in turfgrass management. A 1996 graduate of Chippewa High School, he is the son of Doug and Kathy Hughes.

Ohio State ATI is an associate degree granting program within the College of Food, Agricultural, and Environmental Sciences at The Ohio State University. Students participate in a curriculum that includes general and basic studies, hands-on experience and a paid industry internship.

Ohio State ATI is the largest institution of its kind in the U.S., enrolling more than 1,000 students and offering 25 programs of study. Ohio State ATI maintains a 99 percent job placement rate for all graduates within four months of graduation.

News

1328 Dover Road, Wooster, Ohio 44691-4000 • Phone (330) 264-3911, (800) 647-8383 (Ohio only)
• Fax (330) 262-7634

For immediate release

Contact: Frances Whited
Public Relations Coordinator
(330) 264-3911 ext. 1216

Area student graduates from Ohio State ATI

(Wooster, Ohio) March 20, 2000 -- Bernice Kane of Garfield Heights graduated Winter Quarter 2000 from The Ohio State University Agricultural Technical Institute with an Associate of Applied Science degree in nursery management. A 1997 graduate of Garfield Heights High School, she is the daughter of Gary and Bernice Kane.

Ohio State ATI is an associate degree granting program within the College of Food, Agricultural, and Environmental Sciences at The Ohio State University. Students participate in a curriculum that includes general and basic studies, hands-on experience and a paid industry internship.

Ohio State ATI is the largest institution of its kind in the U.S., enrolling more than 1,000 students and offering 25 programs of study. Ohio State ATI maintains a 99 percent job placement rate for all graduates within four months of graduation.

News

1328 Dover Road, Wooster, Ohio 44691-4000 • Phone (330) 264-3911, (800) 647-8383 (Ohio only)
• Fax (330) 262-7634

For immediate release

Contact: Frances Whited
Public Relations Coordinator
(330) 264-3911 ext. 1216

Area student graduates from Ohio State ATI

(Wooster, Ohio) March 20, 2000 -- Jacquelyn Luce of West Lafayette graduated Winter Quarter 2000 from The Ohio State University Agricultural Technical Institute with an Associate of Applied Science degree in horse production and management. A 1997 graduate of Ridgewood High School, she is the daughter of Gwendolyn D'ostroph.

Ohio State ATI is an associate degree granting program within the College of Food, Agricultural, and Environmental Sciences at The Ohio State University. Students participate in a curriculum that includes general and basic studies, hands-on experience and a paid industry internship.

Ohio State ATI is the largest institution of its kind in the U.S., enrolling more than 1,000 students and offering 25 programs of study. Ohio State ATI maintains a 99 percent job placement rate for all graduates within four months of graduation.

News

1328 Dover Road, Wooster, Ohio 44691-4000 • Phone (330) 264-3911, (800) 647-8383 (Ohio only)
• Fax (330) 262-7634

For immediate release

Contact: Frances Whited
Public Relations Coordinator
(330) 264-3911 ext. 1216

Area student graduates from Ohio State ATI

(Wooster, Ohio) March 20, 2000 -- Melinda Marquardt graduated Winter Quarter 2000 from The Ohio State University Agricultural Technical Institute with an Associate of Applied Science degree in horse production and management. A 1997 graduate of Margaretta High School, she is the daughter of Bonnie and Bill Marquardt of Vickery.

Ohio State ATI is an associate degree granting program within the College of Food, Agricultural, and Environmental Sciences at The Ohio State University. Students participate in a curriculum that includes general and basic studies, hands-on experience and a paid industry internship.

Ohio State ATI is the largest institution of its kind in the U.S., enrolling more than 1,000 students and offering 25 programs of study. Ohio State ATI maintains a 99 percent job placement rate for all graduates within four months of graduation.

News

1328 Dover Road, Wooster, Ohio 44691-4000 • Phone (330) 264-3911, (800) 647-8383 (Ohio only)
• Fax (330) 262-7634

For immediate release

Contact: Frances Whited
Public Relations Coordinator
(330) 264-3911 ext. 1216

Area students graduate from Ohio State ATI

(Wooster, Ohio) March 20, 2000 – Two Mt. Gilead area students graduated Winter Quarter 2000 from The Ohio State University Agricultural Technical Institute. They are:

- Gary Eichorn of Lexington, who graduated with an Associate of Applied Science degree in turfgrass management. A 1997 graduate of Northmor High School, he is the son of Delmar and Kathy Eichorn.
- Justin Gompf of Cardington, who graduated with an Associate of Applied Science degree in turfgrass management. A 1995 graduate of Cardington-Lincoln High School, he is the son of Chris and Jan Gompf.

Ohio State ATI is an associate degree granting program within the College of Food, Agricultural, and Environmental Sciences at The Ohio State University. Students participate in a curriculum that includes general and basic studies, hands-on experience and a paid industry internship.

Ohio State ATI is the largest institution of its kind in the U.S., enrolling more than 1,000 students and offering 25 programs of study. Ohio State ATI maintains a 99 percent job placement rate for all graduates within four months of graduation.

News

1328 Dover Road, Wooster, Ohio 44691-4000 • Phone (330) 264-3911, (800) 647-8383 (Ohio only)
• Fax (330) 262-7634

For immediate release

Contact: Frances Whited
Public Relations Coordinator
(330) 264-3911 ext. 1216

Area students graduate from Ohio State ATI

(Wooster, Ohio) March 20, 2000 – Two Medina area students graduated Winter Quarter 2000 from The Ohio State University Agricultural Technical Institute. They are:

- Jonathan Knopf of Creston, who graduated with an Associate of Applied Science degree in landscape contracting and construction. A 1996 graduate of Buckeye Senior High School, he is the son of David and Jenny Knopf.
- Jennifer Ringstmeier of Valley City, who graduated with an Associate of Applied Science degree in turfgrass management. A 1993 graduate of Buckeye High School, she is the daughter of Jack and Joyce Ringstmeier.

Ohio State ATI is an associate degree granting program within the College of Food, Agricultural, and Environmental Sciences at The Ohio State University. Students participate in a curriculum that includes general and basic studies, hands-on experience and a paid industry internship.

Ohio State ATI is the largest institution of its kind in the U.S., enrolling more than 1,000 students and offering 25 programs of study. Ohio State ATI maintains a 99 percent job placement rate for all graduates within four months of graduation.

News

1328 Dover Road, Wooster, Ohio 44691-4000 • Phone (330) 264-3911, (800) 647-8383 (Ohio only)
• Fax (330) 262-7634

For immediate release

Contact: Frances Whited
Public Relations Coordinator
(330) 264-3911 ext. 1216

Area student graduates from Ohio State ATI

(Wooster, Ohio) March 20, 2000 -- Todd Messenger of Mt. Sterling graduated Winter Quarter 2000 from The Ohio State University Agricultural Technical Institute with an Associate of Applied Science degree in crop management. A 1995 graduate of Madison Plains High School, he is the son of Lynn and Ernest Messenger.

Ohio State ATI is an associate degree granting program within the College of Food, Agricultural, and Environmental Sciences at The Ohio State University. Students participate in a curriculum that includes general and basic studies, hands-on experience and a paid industry internship.

Ohio State ATI is the largest institution of its kind in the U.S., enrolling more than 1,000 students and offering 25 programs of study. Ohio State ATI maintains a 99 percent job placement rate for all graduates within four months of graduation.

News

1328 Dover Road, Wooster, Ohio 44691-4000 • Phone (330) 264-3911, (800) 647-8383 (Ohio only)
• Fax (330) 262-7634

For immediate release

Contact: Frances Whited
Public Relations Coordinator
(330) 264-3911 ext. 1216

Area student graduates from Ohio State ATI

(Wooster, Ohio) March 20, 2000 -- Amy Nicholson of Canal Fulton graduated Winter Quarter 2000 from The Ohio State University Agricultural Technical Institute with an Associate of Applied Science degree in horse production and management. A 1997 graduate of Northwest High School, she is the daughter of Pat and Herb Nicholson.

Ohio State ATI is an associate degree granting program within the College of Food, Agricultural, and Environmental Sciences at The Ohio State University. Students participate in a curriculum that includes general and basic studies, hands-on experience and a paid industry internship.

Ohio State ATI is the largest institution of its kind in the U.S., enrolling more than 1,000 students and offering 25 programs of study. Ohio State ATI maintains a 99 percent job placement rate for all graduates within four months of graduation.

News

1328 Dover Road, Wooster, Ohio 44691-4000 • Phone (330) 264-3911, (800) 647-8383 (Ohio only)
• Fax (330) 262-7634

For immediate release

Contact: Frances Whited
Public Relations Coordinator
(330) 264-3911 ext. 1216

Area student graduates from Ohio State ATI

(Wooster, Ohio) March 20, 2000 -- Brent Parker of McCutchenville graduated Winter Quarter 2000 from The Ohio State University Agricultural Technical Institute with an Associate of Applied Science degree in crop services. A 1997 graduate of Mohawk High School, he is the son of Gary and Susan Parker.

Ohio State ATI is an associate degree granting program within the College of Food, Agricultural, and Environmental Sciences at The Ohio State University. Students participate in a curriculum that includes general and basic studies, hands-on experience and a paid industry internship.

Ohio State ATI is the largest institution of its kind in the U.S., enrolling more than 1,000 students and offering 25 programs of study. Ohio State ATI maintains a 99 percent job placement rate for all graduates within four months of graduation.

News

1328 Dover Road, Wooster, Ohio 44691-4000 • Phone (330) 264-3911, (800) 647-8383 (Ohio only)
• Fax (330) 262-7634

For immediate release

Contact: Frances Whited
Public Relations Coordinator
(330) 264-3911 ext. 1216

Area student graduates from Ohio State ATI

(Wooster, Ohio) March 20, 2000 -- Alicia Polette of Reynoldsburg graduated Winter Quarter 2000 from The Ohio State University Agricultural Technical Institute with an Associate of Applied Science degree in floral design and marketing. A 1997 graduate of Westerville North High School, she is the daughter of Ercyl Polette.

Ohio State ATI is an associate degree granting program within the College of Food, Agricultural, and Environmental Sciences at The Ohio State University. Students participate in a curriculum that includes general and basic studies, hands-on experience and a paid industry internship.

Ohio State ATI is the largest institution of its kind in the U.S., enrolling more than 1,000 students and offering 25 programs of study. Ohio State ATI maintains a 99 percent job placement rate for all graduates within four months of graduation.

News

1328 Dover Road, Wooster, Ohio 44691-4000 • Phone (330) 264-3911, (800) 647-8383 (Ohio only)
• Fax (330) 262-7634

For immediate release

Contact: Frances Whited
Public Relations Coordinator
(330) 264-3911 ext. 1216

Area student graduates from Ohio State ATI

(Wooster, Ohio) March 20, 2000 -- Mark Radick of Chagrin Falls graduated Winter Quarter 2000 from The Ohio State University Agricultural Technical Institute with an Associate of Applied Science degree in landscape contracting and construction. A 1997 graduate of Kenston High School, he is the son of Edward and JoAnn Radick.

Ohio State ATI is an associate degree granting program within the College of Food, Agricultural, and Environmental Sciences at The Ohio State University. Students participate in a curriculum that includes general and basic studies, hands-on experience and a paid industry internship.

Ohio State ATI is the largest institution of its kind in the U.S., enrolling more than 1,000 students and offering 25 programs of study. Ohio State ATI maintains a 99 percent job placement rate for all graduates within four months of graduation.

News

1328 Dover Road, Wooster, Ohio 44691-4000 • Phone (330) 264-3911, (800) 647-8383 (Ohio only)
• Fax (330) 262-7624

For immediate release

Contact: Frances Whited
Public Relations Coordinator
(330) 264-3911 ext. 1216

Area student graduates from Ohio State ATI

(Wooster, Ohio) March 20, 2000 -- Matt Robinson of Beavercreek graduated Winter Quarter 2000 from The Ohio State University Agricultural Technical Institute with an Associate of Science degree in horticultural science. A 1997 graduate of Beavercreek High School, he is the son of Thomas and Linda Robinson.

Ohio State ATI is an associate degree granting program within the College of Food, Agricultural, and Environmental Sciences at The Ohio State University. Students participate in a curriculum that includes general and basic studies, hands-on experience and a paid industry internship. Ohio State ATI is the largest institution of its kind in the U.S., enrolling more than 1,000 students and offering 25 programs of study. Ohio State ATI maintains a 99 percent job placement rate for all graduates within four months of graduation.

News

1328 Dover Road, Wooster, Ohio 44691-4000 • Phone (330) 264-3911, (800) 647-8383 (Ohio only)
• Fax (330) 262-7634

For immediate release

Contact: Frances Whited
Public Relations Coordinator
(330) 264-3911 ext. 1216

Area student graduates from Ohio State ATI

(Wooster, Ohio) March 20, 2000 -- Bradley Rudd of Felicity graduated Winter Quarter 2000 from The Ohio State University Agricultural Technical Institute with an Associate of Applied Science degree in construction management. A 1997 graduate of Felicity-Franklin High School, he is the son of John and Regina Rudd.

Ohio State ATI is an associate degree granting program within the College of Food, Agricultural, and Environmental Sciences at The Ohio State University. Students participate in a curriculum that includes general and basic studies, hands-on experience and a paid industry internship.

Ohio State ATI is the largest institution of its kind in the U.S., enrolling more than 1,000 students and offering 25 programs of study. Ohio State ATI maintains a 99 percent job placement rate for all graduates within four months of graduation.

News

1328 Dover Road, Wooster, Ohio 44691-4000 • Phone (330) 264-3911, (800) 647-8383 (Ohio only)
• Fax (330) 262-7634

For immediate release

Contact: Frances Whited
Public Relations Coordinator
(330) 264-3911 ext. 1216

Area student graduates from Ohio State ATI

(Wooster, Ohio) March 20, 2000 -- Jennifer Stanley of Freeport graduated Winter Quarter 2000 from The Ohio State University Agricultural Technical Institute with an Associate of Applied Science degree in horse production and management. A 1997 graduate of Lakeland High School, she is the daughter of Tom and Lori Stanley.

Ohio State ATI is an associate degree granting program within the College of Food, Agricultural, and Environmental Sciences at The Ohio State University. Students participate in a curriculum that includes general and basic studies, hands-on experience and a paid industry internship.

Ohio State ATI is the largest institution of its kind in the U.S., enrolling more than 1,000 students and offering 25 programs of study. Ohio State ATI maintains a 99 percent job placement rate for all graduates within four months of graduation.

News

1328 Dover Road, Wooster, Ohio 44691-4000 • Phone (330) 264-3911, (800) 647-8383 (Ohio only)
• Fax (330) 262-7634

For immediate release

Contact: Frances Whited
Public Relations Coordinator
(330) 264-3911 ext. 1216

Area student graduates from Ohio State ATI

(Wooster, Ohio) March 20, 2000 -- Daniel Stauffer of Canal Fulton graduated Winter Quarter 2000 from The Ohio State University Agricultural Technical Institute with an Associate of Applied Science degree in turfgrass management. A 1990 graduate of Louisville Senior High School, he is the son of Gary and Susan Stauffer.

Ohio State ATI is an associate degree granting program within the College of Food, Agricultural, and Environmental Sciences at The Ohio State University. Students participate in a curriculum that includes general and basic studies, hands-on experience and a paid industry internship.

Ohio State ATI is the largest institution of its kind in the U.S., enrolling more than 1,000 students and offering 25 programs of study. Ohio State ATI maintains a 99 percent job placement rate for all graduates within four months of graduation.

News

1328 Dover Road, Wooster, Ohio 44691-4000 • Phone (330) 264-3911, (800) 647-8383 (Ohio only)
• Fax (330) 262-7634

For immediate release

Contact: Frances Whited
Public Relations Coordinator
(330) 264-3911 ext. 1216

Area student graduates from Ohio State ATI

(Wooster, Ohio) March 20, 2000 -- Carl Terek of Campbell graduated Winter Quarter 2000 from The Ohio State University Agricultural Technical Institute with an Associate of Applied Science degree in turfgrass management. A 1994 graduate of Campbell Memorial High School, he is the son of Carl and Geraldine Terek.

Ohio State ATI is an associate degree granting program within the College of Food, Agricultural, and Environmental Sciences at The Ohio State University. Students participate in a curriculum that includes general and basic studies, hands-on experience and a paid industry internship.

Ohio State ATI is the largest institution of its kind in the U.S., enrolling more than 1,000 students and offering 25 programs of study. Ohio State ATI maintains a 99 percent job placement rate for all graduates within four months of graduation.

News

1328 Dover Road, Wooster, Ohio 44691-4000 • Phone (330) 264-3911, (800) 647-8383 (Ohio only)
• Fax (330) 262-7634

For immediate release

Contact: Frances Whited
Public Relations Coordinator
(330) 264-3911 ext. 1216

Area students graduate from Ohio State ATI

(Wooster, Ohio) March 20, 2000 – Two New Philadelphia area students graduated Winter Quarter 2000 from The Ohio State University Agricultural Technical Institute. They are:

- Michael Casimir of Tuscarawas, who graduated with an Associate of Applied Science degree in turfgrass management. A 1997 graduate of Indian Valley High School, he is the son of Ron and Kathy Casimir.
- Chad Rippeth of New Philadelphia, who graduated with an Associate of Applied Science degree in landscape contracting and construction. A 1994 graduate of New Philadelphia High School, he is the son of Olin and Donna Rippeth.

Ohio State ATI is an associate degree granting program within the College of Food, Agricultural, and Environmental Sciences at The Ohio State University. Students participate in a curriculum that includes general and basic studies, hands-on experience and a paid industry internship.

Ohio State ATI is the largest institution of its kind in the U.S., enrolling more than 1,000 students and offering 25 programs of study. Ohio State ATI maintains a 99 percent job placement rate for all graduates within four months of graduation.

News

1328 Dover Road, Wooster, Ohio 44691-4000 • Phone (330) 264-3911, (800) 647-8383 (Ohio only)
• Fax (330) 262-7624

For immediate release

Contact: Frances Whited
Public Relations Coordinator
(330) 264-3911 ext. 1216

Area student graduates from Ohio State ATI

(Wooster, Ohio) March 20, 2000 -- Bradley Vecchio of Garrettsville graduated Winter Quarter 2000 from The Ohio State University Agricultural Technical Institute with an Associate of Applied Science degree in turfgrass management. A 1994 graduate of James A. Garfield High School, he is the son of Andrew and Rose Vecchio.

Ohio State ATI is an associate degree granting program within the College of Food, Agricultural, and Environmental Sciences at The Ohio State University. Students participate in a curriculum that includes general and basic studies, hands-on experience and a paid industry internship. Ohio State ATI is the largest institution of its kind in the U.S., enrolling more than 1,000 students and offering 25 programs of study. Ohio State ATI maintains a 99 percent job placement rate for all graduates within four months of graduation.

News

1328 Dover Road, Wooster, Ohio 44691-4000 • Phone (330) 264-3911, (800) 647-8383 (Ohio only)
• Fax (330) 262-7634

For immediate release

Contact: Frances Whited
Public Relations Coordinator
(330) 264-3911 ext. 1216

Area students graduate from Ohio State ATI

(Wooster, Ohio) March 20, 2000 – Two Wapakoneta area students graduated Winter Quarter 2000 from The Ohio State University Agricultural Technical Institute. They are:

- Jason Limbert of Wapakoneta, who graduated with an Associate of Applied Science degree in environmental resources management. A 1995 graduate of Wapakoneta Senior High School, he is the son of Marie Limbert.
- Drew Sutherland of Waynesfield, who graduated with an Associate of Applied Science degree in beef and sheep production and management. A 1997 graduate of Waynesfield-Goshen High School, he is the son of Charles and Diane Sutherland.

Ohio State ATI is an associate degree granting program within the College of Food, Agricultural, and Environmental Sciences at The Ohio State University. Students participate in a curriculum that includes general and basic studies, hands-on experience and a paid industry internship.

Ohio State ATI is the largest institution of its kind in the U.S., enrolling more than 1,000 students and offering 25 programs of study. Ohio State ATI maintains a 99 percent job placement rate for all graduates within four months of graduation.

News

1328 Dover Road, Wooster, Ohio 44691-4000 • Phone (330) 264-3911, (800) 647-8383 (Ohio only)
• Fax (330) 262-7634

For immediate release

Contact: Frances Whited
Public Relations Coordinator
(330) 264-3911 ext. 1216

Area students graduate from Ohio State ATI

(Wooster, Ohio) March 20, 2000 – Three Xenia area students graduated Winter Quarter 2000 from The Ohio State University Agricultural Technical Institute. They are:

- Josh Jacobs of Xenia, who graduated with an Associate of Applied Science degree in beef production. A 1997 graduate of Xenia High School, he is the son of Kevin and Sandi Jacobs.
- Dianne Pitstick of Xenia, who graduated with an Associate of Applied Science degree in horse production and management. A 1997 graduate of Xenia High School, she is the daughter of A. John and Nancy Pitstick.
- Matt Austin of Wooster, who graduated with an Associate of Applied Science degree in turfgrass management. A 1995 graduate of Greeneview High School, he is the son of Joanne Austin.

Ohio State ATI is an associate degree granting program within the College of Food, Agricultural, and Environmental Sciences at The Ohio State University. Students participate in a curriculum that includes general and basic studies, hands-on experience and a paid industry internship.

-more-

Ohio State ATI is the largest institution of its kind in the U.S., enrolling more than 1,000 students and offering 25 programs of study. Ohio State ATI maintains a 99 percent job placement rate for all graduates within four months of graduation.

News

1328 Dover Road, Wooster, Ohio 44691-4000 • Phone (330) 264-3911, (800) 647-8383 (Ohio only)
• Fax (330) 262-7634

For immediate release

Contact: Frances Whited
Public Relations Coordinator
(330) 264-3911 ext. 1216

Area student graduates from Ohio State ATI

(Wooster, Ohio) March 20, 2000 -- Paul Yaussy of Marion graduated Winter Quarter 2000 from The Ohio State University Agricultural Technical Institute with an Associate of Science degree in dairy science. A 1987 graduate of Northmor High School, he is the son of Ardent and Carolyn Yaussy.

Ohio State ATI is an associate degree granting program within the College of Food, Agricultural, and Environmental Sciences at The Ohio State University. Students participate in a curriculum that includes general and basic studies, hands-on experience and a paid industry internship.

Ohio State ATI is the largest institution of its kind in the U.S., enrolling more than 1,000 students and offering 25 programs of study. Ohio State ATI maintains a 99 percent job placement rate for all graduates within four months of graduation.

News

1328 Dover Road, Wooster, Ohio 44691-4000 • Phone (330) 264-3911, (800) 647-8383 (Ohio only)
• Fax (330) 262-7634

For immediate release

Contact: Frances Whited
Public Relations Coordinator
(330) 264-3911 ext. 1216

Area student graduates from Ohio State ATI

(Wooster, Ohio) March 20, 2000 -- Emily Yoders of Wooster graduated Winter Quarter 2000 from The Ohio State University Agricultural Technical Institute with an Associate of Applied Science degree in horticulture and agricultural business. A 1996 graduate of Wooster High School, she is the daughter of Mark and Susanne Yoders.

Ohio State ATI is an associate degree granting program within the College of Food, Agricultural, and Environmental Sciences at The Ohio State University. Students participate in a curriculum that includes general and basic studies, hands-on experience and a paid industry internship.

Ohio State ATI is the largest institution of its kind in the U.S., enrolling more than 1,000 students and offering 25 programs of study. Ohio State ATI maintains a 99 percent job placement rate for all graduates within four months of graduation.