COACHING/SUPPORT STAFF

Tom Ryan - Head Coach (6th Season)

It is hard to imagine it has already been six years since head coach Tom Ryan's arrival to campus. Taking over the Buckeye wrestling team in the spring of 2006, Ryan knew expectations were high and right then and there quickly went to work. He began rebuilding a program that was part of a tough Big Ten conference and needing to contend on that scale before making its mark on the national map. Needless to say, Ryan has not failed to deliver. A look at the numbers and facts:

- 2009 National Coach of the Year
- Consecutive NCAA runner-up finishes in 2008 and 2009
- 16 All-America honorees, the most by an Ohio State head coach in a five-year span
- 3 NCAA individual champions in Mike Pucillo and J Jagers (two-time champion)
- Coached 2009 Ohio State Male Athlete of the Year J Jagers
- Mentored Ohio State's second four-time All-American Lance Palmer
- 2 Big Ten Champions in Mike Pucillo (184 in 2008) and Lance Palmer (149 in 2010)
- 7 have been recognized by the National Wrestling Coaches Association (NWCA) with prestigious NWCA All-Academic Team accolades - J.D. Bergman, J Jagers, C.J. Magrum (two-time), Corey Morrison (two-time), Ian Paddock, Mike Pucillo and Colt Sponseller (two-time). Sponseller and Paddock were named to the NWCA Division I True-Freshman All-Academic Team as well
- 24 Academic All-Big Ten selections have been honored
- 50 have earned Ohio State Scholar-Athlete laurels
- Ryan believes community service is crucial to building "Life Champions," and therefore the Buckeyes are active participants in the Second & Seven Foundation reading program that strives to "Tackle Illiteracy" in Central Ohio and routinely volunteers at Nationwide Children's Hospital and the annual Wrestle against Autism Tournament
- Presented with a Resolution of Expression from Columbus City Council member A. Troy Miller Sept. 21, 2009 in council chambers to recognize the program's commitment to community service, academics and athletics
- Instrumental in filling the seats of St. John Arena as the historic venue was packed with a Buckeye wrestling record 5,341 fans who watched Ohio State beat Michigan, 16-15, in 2008.

FILLING IN THE PIECES

For all the successes, whether on the athletics or academic landscape, Ryan and the Buckeyes are still seeking two important pieces to the puzzle - Big Ten and NCAA titles. Ryan and company came close to winning the program's first national crown in 2009, finishing second to Iowa by only 4.5 points. The achievements are definitely worth noting, but Ryan takes no solitude in moral victories. The program has had unprecedented success during Ryan's tenure, but quite frankly it is not enough. Coupled with the fact the Scarlet and Gray has never won an NCAA title, their last Big Ten championship came in 1951.

However, Ryan will also be the first to admit bringing together all the parts for the good of the cause will eventually reward those who buy into the system.

In 2008, proof of just what Ryan brought to the Buckeye wrestling program was witnessed by many as Ohio State became a legitimate contender on the national stage. Backed by three individual finalists, Ohio State compiled 79 points for its first of two runner-up finishes and highest placing in program history. Also, Ohio State finished with back-to-back 7-1 seasons in the conference in 2009 and 2010, a feat never accomplished until Ryan's arrival.

TOM RYAN, THE STUDENT-ATHLETE

During his collegiate wrestling career, Ryan was a two-time NCAA Division I All-American for Iowa (second in 1991, third in 1992) as a member of the Hawkeyes' 1991 and 1992 national and Big Ten championships teams. He also was a two-time Big Ten champion in 1991 and 1992. Prior to enrolling at Iowa, Ryan wrestled at Syracuse, where he was the 1989 Eastern Inter-collegiate Wrestling Association Champion.

WANT TO KNOW MORE?

Family: Wife, Lynette; Children, Jordan, Jake, Teague and Mackenzie

Degree: Bachelor of Science in Education (Iowa, 1993)

Coaching: Head coach at Hofstra from 1995-2006; seven-time conference coach of the year (Eastern Collegiate Wrestling Association and Colonial Athletic Association); two-time New York State Coach of the Year, led Pride to six consecutive conference titles; recorded a 47-match (46-0-1) conference unbeaten streak in dual action - the nation's longest conference unbeaten streak; was an assistant at Indiana from 1992-1994; reached 150 career wins following 26-13 win over Illinois Feb. 15, 2009.

Lou Rosselli - Associate Head Coach (6th Season)

Hired by head coach Tom Ryan in the spring of 2006, Lou Rosselli has entered his third year as the associate head coach and sixth overall with the Buckeyes. Working primarily with the lighter weight classes, Rosselli was promoted by Ryan following the 2008-09 season.

Like Ryan, Rosselli's accomplishments and credentials are impressive. The 2009 NWCA Assistant Coach of the Year, Rosselli coached two-time 141-pound NCAA champion J Jagers (2008 and 2009). There is no question Rosselli's work behind the scenes had a tremendous impact on the Buckeyes' back-to-back second-place finishes in the 2008 and 2009 NCAA Championships in St. Louis as well.

Rosselli also has coaching commitments away from Ohio State. For the third time in his coaching career, Rosselli led the U.S. World Freestyle Team at the University World Championships in Torino, Italy, last October. This past fall, he also helped lead the Red, White and Blue at the World Championships in Istanbul, Turkey. Previously he was part of the U.S. Freestyle coaching staff at the 2007 and 2006 World Championships in Baku, Azerbaijan, and Guangzhou, China, respectively. In spring 2009, Rosselli worked with the U.S. National team as the squad competed at the 2009 Pan American Championships in Maracaibo, Venezuela. The U.S. squad tallied 58 points en route to the gold medal. Rosselli also was one of five finalists for the volunteer freestyle coaching position for the U.S. men's team that competed in the 2008 Olympics.

Rosselli has been lauded with several honors, including the 2007 Terry McCann Award and USA Wrestling's Freestyle Coach of the Year honor. A 1993 graduate of Edinboro, Rosselli also was honored by the Edinboro University of Pennsylvania Alumni Association at the Distinguished Alumni Awards ceremony with the Young Alumni Award. That honor complements his memberships in the Edinboro and Eastern Wrestling League halls of fame. Rosselli was added to a third hall of fame in October of 2009 when he was officially enshrined into the Greater Buffalo Sports Hall of Fame. As an international competitor, Rosselli qualified for the 1996 U.S. Olympic Team for the Atlanta Games (114.5 pounds) and was a three-time U.S. Open champion in 1995, 1996 and 1999.

A letterwinner for the Fighting Scots from 1989-1993, Rosselli was a two-time All-American (1991 and 1993) and three-time Pennsylvania State Athletic Conference champion at 118 pounds. In 1989, Rosselli was named EWL Freshman of the Year and became the first Edinboro freshman to earn a trip to the NCAA championships. Following his senior year in 1993, Rosselli earned EWL and PSAC Wrestler of the Year honors after winning titles in both conferences.

Rosselli graduated with a degree in health and physical education in 1993. He and his wife, Amy, have three children, Jordan, Ty and Jaxson.

COACHING/SUPPORT STAFF

J Jagers - Assistant Coach (3rd Season)

Two-time NCAA champion J Jagers made a seamless transition from student-athlete to coach in 2009-10 as the volunteer assistant coach and now is in his second year as a full-time assistant.

"Jagers brings a successful resume to the Buckeye program," Tom Ryan, head coach, said. "He has accomplished many great things as a competitor and student. His deep-rooted passion for the Buckeyes makes him a great addition to the staff."

In addition to his integral role in the gym and his coaching duties during matches, Jagers so assists the Ohio State Athletics Department's Fan Experience and Promotions staff in marketing all home matches. The 2009 Ohio State Male Athlete of the Year, Jagers works heavily in securing fundraising dollars for a program that has grown tremendously in terms of competition status.

Jagers concluded his Buckeye career in impressive fashion, becoming just the third wrestler in program history to win two national titles. A three-time All-American and four-time NCAA qualifier, Jagers compiled 107 wins during his career. After winning his first national title in 2008, he was honored by the Greater Cleveland Sports Commission with Collegiate Athlete of the Year.

Excelling in the classroom, Jagers was a three-time NWCA All-Academic Team member, two-time Academic All-Big Ten and Ohio State Scholar-Athlete recipient. Jagers earned his bachelor's degree in communication in March 2009.

Jagers and his wife Kara reside in Columbus.

Ross Thatcher - Volunteer Assistant Coach (1st Season)

Ross Thatcher returns to the Ohio State wrestling program this season after previously working with the team from 2005-08 as the volunteer strength and conditioning coach. Most recently, Thatcher served as the volunteer assistant coach at Oklahoma, a position he held since 2009. Thatcher was part of the coaching staff that helped the Sooners finish fifth at the 2010 NCAA Championships.

A graduate of Bishop Ready High School, Thatcher began his coaching career at his alma mater, Penn State in 2000. An assistant coach for the Nittany Lions until 2003, Thatcher continued his coaching career at Ohio State. He was part of the Buckeye coaching staff that guided the Scarlet and Gray to its first of two runner-up finishes at the NCAA championships in 2008. During that season, the Buckeyes boasted three NCAA finalists - J Jagers, Mike Pucillo, and J.D. Bergman - with Jagers and Pucillo winning NCAA titles.

A three-time finalist and two-time Ohio state champion for Bishop Ready, Thatcher was a four-time letterwinner at Penn State. In 2000, he was named team captain and capped his career by garnering All-America honors. Following his career at PSU, Thatcher wrestled for the New York Athletic Club, where he was a two-time Sunkist International Open champion, champion at the New York Athletic Club International Open, Dave Schultz International Open champion and was named Northeast Regional Outstanding Wrestler and champion. Additionally, he was a Bronze medalist for the 2001 U.S. Pan-American team and was a member of the U.S. World University Games Freestyle and Greco Roman squads.

Thatcher graduated from Penn State in 2000 with a bachelor's degree in health and human development. Thatcher arrives in Columbus with his wife, Jen and daughter Emma.

Alex Picazo - Director of Operations (4th Season)

Arguably one of the most taxing positions on any sports team, the director of operations duties are handled by Alex Picazo. Entering his fourth season in that capacity, Picazo handles the day-to-day logistical responsibilities. He also will continue his role with strength and conditioning.

A 2008 Ohio State graduate (business), Picazo has been involved with Buckeye wrestling since 2003 - his freshman season. During a five-year span as a student-athlete, he became a four-time Academic All-Big Ten recipient and five-time Ohio State Scholar-Athlete. In 2006, Picazo was named the team captain and the following year in 2007 became a University Nationals All-American.

During the spring 2008, Picazo was the recipient of the Ohio State Men's Varsity O Scholarship following an impressive undergraduate career in which he earned the highest grade point average of any graduating student-athlete from the Fisher College of Business. The award provides a male scholar-athlete with a one-time stipend of $4,000 for postgraduate studies at Ohio State.

BIG TEN MEDAL OF HONOR

In 1914, the Big Ten Conference endowed a Medal of Honor, awarded annually at each institution to the senior student demonstrating proficiency in scholarship and athletics. Two Buckeye wrestlers have shown the drive and dedication needed to earn this award. Ron Gharbo (1988) and Mike DiSabato (1991).
