Tempo di marcia (Not fast)

Rueben Plank a husky Yank, came into town one day, While, and said "I can't resist, I really must enlist by heck, I'll Rueben Plank was in the ranks for just a little while,

Then he soon went ahead, He's Corporal Plank instead, by heck, He help to get that Kaiser Bill I hear so much about," He gets his squad together and at night when all is still, They passed the test, threw out his chest, And started into shout.

Sing the chorus Rueben wrote, To Mister Kaiser Bill.

“It's a long way to Berlin, but we'll get there_ Uncle Sam will show the way,_
Over the line, then across the Rhine, Shouting Hip!

Hip! Hooray! We'll sing Yankee Doodle 'Under the Linden,' With some real live Yankee Pep! (Shout! Hep! It's a long way to Berlin but we'll get there,- And I'm on my way by heck-by heck." "It's a heck."

Get these four smashing song hits for your piano, your talking-machine, or your player-piano—and get them right away. Keep up with the boys who sing their way into action.

It's a Long Way to Berlin

We'll sing Yankee Doodle under the Linden with some real live Yankee pep! That's the real "do or die" spirit of this up-to-the-minute war-song hit. Better than "Tipperary" because it goes straight to the point. The music gets there, too—gets to your heart and your feet. By Arthur Fields and Leon Platon.

I Don't Want to Get Well

Here's a song that will make you laugh—although it's about a wounded soldier. He was hotter hit by his nurse's smile than by the German bullets—and in a far more vulnerable spot. A syncopated melody that won't let your feet keep still. By Johnson, Pease, and Jentes.

I Don't Want to Get Well

On Sale Now

At all music and department stores, or at any Woolworth, Krupa, Knaut, McCurry, Kraft, Grant, or Metropolitan store.

O U R boys on the fields of France, our sailors on the big, gray sea-fighters, and the boys in our training-camps are singing them! The whole country is singing them and dancing to their inspiring melodies! Being sung to tremendous applause in thousands of theatres throughout the land!

Try over the choruses and you will know why. Don't wait until you hear everybody singing them—get copies of all four of these songs now and be the first to sing them.

These songs are on sale at practically every music store in the United States and Canada. Look for their displays of the songs and reproductions of this advertisement in their windows.

Hail, Hail, the Gang's All Here

Here's a song you know. But did you ever hear the verses or did you ever see the music? It's all here—and it's all the sort of stuff that puts pep into everybody. One of the greatest marching refrains ever written—and just as good as a fox-trot or one-step. By D. A. Eason, Theodore Morse, and Arthur Sullivan.

Homeward Bound

Your skin will be awfully thick if this song doesn't get deep-down underneath. You can see our brave boys coming home, you can see Victory, you can see the joy of duty nobly done and the world at peace again.

The melody—well, it's just the right one for this matchless song. By Howard Johnson, Coleman Goetz, and George W. Meyer.
