The instructors are members of the regular faculty of the College of Law. The work will receive credit toward graduation for the number of hours indicated. It is possible for a student to get credit for a Quarter's work by carrying a full schedule during both terms. A student may graduate by attending three summer sessions and two regular years. A student enrolled in another law school having entrance requirements including at least two years of college work may take courses and have credits transferred to such law school. Such a student may register after receipt of a letter from the secretary of the law school that he is in good standing. Courses open to beginning students are Contracts and Procedure I.

A registration fee of $20.00 for residents of Ohio and $45.00 for non-residents will be charged for each term. In addition, a matriculation fee of $15.00 is charged for first admission to the University.

For further information, write Dean Herschel W. Arant, College of Law, The Ohio State University, Columbus, Ohio.

ADMISSION

METHOD OF ADMISSION

The admission of students is in charge of the University Entrance Board. The record of a student of this University will be examined, upon application of the student, and his eligibility for admission to the College of Law will be determined by the University Examiner, Chairman of the Entrance Board. A candidate for admission to the College of Law who has completed his pre-law work in a college or university other than this University and who meets the requirements outlined below should present an official transcript of his high school and college records to the University Examiner who will determine his eligibility for admission to the College of Law.

REQUIREMENTS FOR ADMISSION

Applicants for admission must be at least eighteen years of age.

Graduates of The Ohio State University, or of other approved universities or colleges, will be admitted upon their records and registered in the College of Law as candidates for the degree, Bachelor of Laws.

Other applicants for admission who are graduates of a high school of the first grade, or who have met the entrance requirements, fifteen units, by examination, and have one hundred thirty-five Quarter-credit hours (ninety semester hours) exclusive of military science, physical education, and hygiene, having completed three full years in an arts college, or its equivalent, in a university of recognized standing and in accordance with its rules, will be admitted to the College of Law as candidates for the degree, Bachelor of Laws. The applicant's point standing must be not less than a minimum of 2 points per credit hour on all work undertaken or of similar quality from another college or university.

ADMISSION WITH ADVANCED STANDING

(a) Applicants for admission with advanced standing must first satisfy the foregoing entrance requirements.

(b) Credits applying on the requirements for the degree in the College of Law will be considered for evaluation provided:

1. The academic record is at least "C" average;
2. The work is completed in an approved college of law;
3. The curriculum in the college of law requires three years;
4. The college of law requires three years of pre-law training.

(c) A complete transcript of the entire record (high school, pre-law, and law) should be forwarded to the University Examiner for evaluation.

COURSE PRELIMINARY TO ADMISSION TO THE COLLEGE OF LAW

College work taken in preparation for the study of law should include English, history, political science, economics, philosophy, sociology, psychology, and accounting. Mathematics appears to be of substantial value in the development of reasoning power.

Whenever possible, applicants for admission to the College of Law should spend at least three years in preparatory work. Students who in pursuance of this plan are following the Arts-Law or Commerce-Law combination curriculum should consult the Student Counselor or Junior Dean of their college early in their Sophomore year concerning the choice and sequence of their courses.
