Tis a gift to be simple
Tis a gift to be free
Tis a gift to come down to where we ought to be
And when find ourselves in the place just right
It will be in the valley of goodness and light

When true simplicity is gained to bow and to bend we will not be ashamed
To turn turn will be our delight
Till by turning and turning
we come 'round right
WELCOME

A late, be special welcome to all new faculty and staff members on the campus. Please stop by the Office of Communication Services and make yourself known. The editor is always looking for Speakers Bureau recruits and new information. Welcome to:

PROFESSIONAL ACTIVITIES

Vic Colombini (OSU-Geology) hosted schoolchildren from the Bluffton Elementary School on November 14, 15 and 16. The students will visit the geology museum for lecture-demonstrations and a guided tour.

Donna Dunsworth (LTC-Dental Hygiene) attended two continuing education programs. The first, held September 20 and 21, was a Caries Prevention Conference sponsored and funded by the National Institute of Health, Bethesda, Maryland, for Community Dental Health Educators. The second conference was a one-day seminar at Lakeland Community College, Mentor, Ohio, entitled "Current Concepts in Oral Pathology." It was presented by William Shafer, D.D.S., from Indiana University. Dr. Shafer is a world-renowned leader in the field of oral pathology.

Dick Milum (OSU-English) presented a paper entitled "Willa Cather's Early Fiction: A Feminist Perspective" at the annual conference of the Western Literature Association in St. Paul, Minnesota on October 7.

Bob Casto (LTC-Respiratory Therapy) delivered a lecture on chronic obstructive lung disease at a seminar for nurses, entitled "Respiratory Problems in the Nursing Home" on September 14. The seminar was sponsored by the Northwest Ohio Lung Association.

Leslie Rigali-Rankin (Communication Services) presented a paper entitled "The Feminine Market, Women and Radio: The 1920's" at the annual conference of the Midwest Popular Culture Association held in Bowling Green on October 22.

Madge Jenkins (LTC-Business) spoke to the Grand Lake Management Association on October 12 in St. Marys.

Judy Rayburn (LTC-Radiologic Technology) attended the annual meeting of the Ohio Society of Radiologic Technologists on October 14-15 in Dayton. Judy was an accreditation site visitor to the Grand Rapids Junior College for the Joint Review Committee on Education in Radiologic Technology, October 17 and 18.

Linnea Hopewell (LTC-Radiologic Technology) attended the annual meeting of the Ohio Society of Radiologic Technologists on October 14-15 in Dayton.

Denny Spragg (LTC-Radiologic Technology) also attended the annual meeting of the Ohio Society of Radiologic Technologists in Dayton on October 14 and 15.

David Adams (OSU-Sociology) presented a paper entitled "Charismatics in Mainline Churches: A Study of Presbyterian Churches" at the meeting of the Association for the Sociology of Religion in Detroit on August 29. David also published an article, "Selection, Socialization, and Four Types of Members in the Red Cross Chapter: A Typology of Voluntary Association Members" in the Journal of Voluntary Action Research(12), April-June 1983, pp 31-45. David also exhibited some of his artwork in a show entitled "Lady Poverty's Children" at the Alma Gallery in Memorial Hall October 15-November 12.

Charles Hanson (OSU-Library) attended the Ohio Library Association Leadership/Planning Conference held in Columbus on September 24 and 25. He was selected as Coordinator of the Northwest Chapter of OLA, representing 270 members, and he will serve as chairman of the chapter conference held in the Spring of 1984.

Charles also has several publications. His poem "Spinning Bullets" appeared recently in the San Fernando Poetry Journal, Vol. V, No. 1. He has several recent acceptances from the following publications; Proof Rock, The White Rock Review, Crab Creek Review and Tiotis Poetry News.

Nathan Drum (OSU-Academic Adviser) addressed the Central Ohio Beekeeper's Association in Columbus on October 8. The title of his presentation was "Chronic Bee Paralysis: An Historical Perspective and New Developments." Nate has also had a paper accepted for publication entitled "Non-stinging aggressive responses of honeybee (Apis mellifera L.) workers to hivemates, intruder bees, and bees afflicted with chronic bee paralysis." This article is scheduled to appear in the Journal of Apicultural Research early in 1984. Nate also is teaching Biology 106 here on our campus during Roy Snyder’s absence.
John Hevener (OSU-History) served as a consultant on "Company Town," a documentary film about Widen, West Virginia. He provided several still photos and J.G. Bradley quotes drawn from the J. Gardner Bradley Papers at the Cornell University archives.

Libby Lloyd (OSU-Art) exhibited her pencil sketches of 34 women authors in a one-woman show at the Elzay Gallery of Art on the Ohio Northern campus through November 11. The show was called "Portraits of Women Who Write."

Norm Stricker (LTC-Business) spoke to students in the Sports Management Program at Bowling Green State University on November 14. The title of his presentation was "Marketing Sports."

Jim Biddle attended the OTCCA (Ohio Technical and Community College Association) - Two Year College Leadership Conference in Nelsonville on October 3. He also attended the Dean's Meeting in Columbus on October 13 and November 3. Jim was also present at the OTCCA meeting in Cincinnati October 23-25. He attended the OBR (Ohio Board of Regents) Two Year College President's meeting with Chancellor Moulton on November 10. Also, on November 18, he attended the Regional Campus Deans and Director's meeting with Dr. Ted Robinson.

LIBRARY HUMOR

Charles Hanson recently received a phone call from the Head of Processing at the State Library of Ohio where we send some of our books to be cataloged. She explained that in the process of moving our last shipment of books from one of the lower floors to the processing area, the book cart had tipped over and one of the books fell down the elevator shaft. The book was retrieved, but the spine was damaged and some of the pages were soiled with oil stain and dirt; therefore, the Processing Department would credit our account $15. She then added, laughingly, that the title of the book was On Being Free.

FOOD CO-OP

The Lima Natural Food Co-op gives members the opportunity to purchase food items at a lower cost than store-bought items. Whole wheat flour, unrefined oils, herbs, cheeses, nuts and many other items are ordered in bulk. Members of the group meet monthly for an ordering session. The food arrives one week later. If you are interested in the co-op or would like more information, contact Candy Miller at 227-2516.

ART LECTURE SERIES

The Lima Art Association has developed an exciting program for their 1983/84 lecture series. All lectures will be held at the Skyview Restaurant, Lazarus in the Lima Mall at 7:30pm. You can order dinner from the Lazarus menu at 6:00 and then hear the lecture at 7:30. The first lecture, "The Art and Architecture of Italy," was presented by Dr. Mary Ann Sullivan, professor of Art History at Bluffton College, on October 12. It was wonderful. Other lectures in the series include:

December 9 - To get in the mood for Christmas, Mary Wolfe, former director of the McFall Gallery at BGSU, will lecture on "The Christmas Story in the Greatest Art in the Western World."

January 13 - David Adams (OSU-Sociology) and James DeVore, Chairman of the Art Department at ONU, will discuss "The Arts of Printmaking Through the Ages."

The Art Association requests that you call them for tickets and dinner reservations at 227-1721.

CAMPUS MINISTRY

The Campus Ministry, comprised of faculty, staff, students and area clergy, has reorganized and hired a part-time coordinator for the program. Area churches donated funds to pay the

SCHOLARSHIPS
The LCSA (Lima Campus Secretarial Association) awarded two scholarships to Lima Campus students this year. Alita Greene (OSU-Accounting) and Luro Foust (LTC-Secretarial) were awarded $250 by the Secretarial Association.
The secretaries are also sponsoring a "Cash for Christmas" raffle. Tickets can be purchased from any Association member. The drawing is on December 2; prizes of $50, $25, and 2-$15 will be awarded. Proceeds from the raffle will go to the scholarship fund.

ACCREDITATION
The LTC Radiology Technology-Radiography program received accreditation by the Joint Review Committee on Education in Radiologic Technology in May. Congratulations!!
The LTC Nursing program was granted continuing accreditation for an eight-year period by the National League for Nursing.
The eight-year period of continuing education is the maximum period granted by the NLN, and follows the recommendation of the League's Board of Review for Associate Degree Programs. Congratulations!!

SPEAKERS BUREAU
The Speakers Bureau brochure will be edited one more time before it is printed. If you have any additions or corrections, please contact the Office of Communication Services, 284.
New faculty and staff members who would like to participate in the Speakers Bureau should also contact Communication Services.
We provide speakers for community service groups and professional associations, free of charge.
EMERGENCY MEDICAL GUIDELINES

In any emergency, the Bath Emergency Medical Services (EMS) unit should be notified first, so that transport capabilities to the hospital are available as soon as possible. Their phone number is 227-1221. Then, if the incident is life-threatening, the Lima Campus EMS personnel should be notified. Personnel are not available at all times; therefore, it is imperative to notify Bath EMS first.

The Lima Campus EMS should be utilized for emergencies requiring advanced life support only, that is, an individual with no pulse, no respirations or extreme difficulty in breathing. Any other emergency requiring EMS assistance should be handled by the Bath Township EMS.

Advanced Life Support (ALS) capabilities can be provided only by appropriate personnel. If those personnel are not on campus, ALS capabilities are nonexistent. This reinforces the necessity of notifying Bath Twp. as soon as possible in an emergency. The EMS personnel's schedule will be given to the faculty secretaries in Cook Hall and the campus operator. The following phone extensions, in order, should be utilized to contact campus EMS personnel after calling Bath: Judy Shaw - 378; Mike Wurst - 228; Peggy Lawrence - 256; Bob Casto - 338. Judy Shaw will best know where to locate the EMS personnel and will notify them of the emergency.

The following information should be given when reporting an emergency:

1) Your name
2) Type of emergency
3) Specific building and location
4) If Bath EMS has been called

No charge will be made for ALS services. If needed, supplies will be replenished by the receiving hospital.

WHAT'S IN A NAME

A few Columbus Campus buildings have changed names. The Administration Building has been renamed the John W. Bricher Building to honor Ohio’s former senator and governor.

The Optometry Building has been renamed Glenn Ansel Fry Hall in honor of the former director of the optometry school.

COMPUTE

The Lima Campus Library has received the IBM PC which is available to the general public under LSCA (Library Services and Construction Act) grant sponsored by the State Library of Ohio. Specifically, the computer will be used for a program of computer literacy aimed at increasing user awareness of computers and their applications. Orientation sessions consisting of one-half hour sessions began the week of October 17 and those interested are asked to sign up in advance in the library. A software program entitled "Exploring the IBM PC" is available for the beginning-level user. Also available are Typing Tutor, Learning to Program in Basic, and Peachtext. As the list of purchased software grows, a printout will be available in the Library Office. Please note that use of the computer is for any interested person--faculty, staff, general public--but all users are expected to complete a short orientation session unless previous experience with computers can be verified. Call Ext. 210 or Ext. 361 (Library Office) for further details on scheduling.

AIRBORNE

If you need to go to Washington, D.C., the Columbus campus has scheduled an eight-passenger pressurized aircraft to fly to Washington every Wednesday.

The plane will leave Don Scott Field each week at 7:30am and return to OSU at 6:00pm the same day. Round trip fare is $220. For reservations or more information, call the University Travel Center.
The Office of Communication Services is collecting original poetry, short stories or anecdotes for the special Christmas issue. Please submit all materials by December 2.

The birthdays of two friends fall on the same day, although one of them is exactly 2,555 days older than other. How old are they?

"Little Joey seems to be growing twice as fast as any other child I ever knew," said his mother. "I'll say," said his father. "Two days ago he was three years old, and next year he'll be six!" Explain this curious situation.
