Notes of Interest

See The New Star Trek film! Don't spend $4.50 to see the new release of Star Trek IV. Allow the Social Activities Board to treat you to a midnight showing for only $1.00!! Friday, Dec. 5 is the night to join the Starship Enterprise at the Frontier Theatre. Advance tickets ($1.00) are available in the Student Activities Office (Galvin 015C). Tickets at the door will cost $1.50. This is a viewing especially for Lima Campus students, faculty, staff and friends.

Student Senate Welcomes your ideas: An open forum will be held on Tuesday at 12 noon in GA 252. The open portion of the Senate's monthly meeting will inform you of the work of the various committees and allow you to share opinions and ideas. Remember, the Senate is working for you!!

Results of Drawings: Get out your raffle tickets from Respiratory Care and Marketing/Management. The winners of the 50/50 drawing will be announced on Monday; winners of the free tuition will be decided on Thursday.

Judge the Sexiest Legs on Campus: Be sure to vote for the sexiest male & female (faculty/staff and student) legs on campus! Votes cost only $.50 each and the "legs" will be displayed in Galvin Hall Lobby this week. Voting takes place Wed-Friday! Proceeds will be used to make holiday food baskets for area needy families. This is a Community Service Project of the Student Senate.

OEA News: Congratulations to Dawn Cariello for being elected to the Office of Historian/Parliamentarian for the State level of OEA. Next local meeting of OEA will be Wed. at 8am in TEL 182. New member are welcome!

Bookstore Book Buy-backs: The OSU Bookstore will offer buy-backs for Fall quarter textbooks during finals week: Mon. & Tues. 9-11:30am, 12:30-8pm.; Wed.-Fri. 9-11:30am, 12:30-4:30pm.

Senate to Sponsor Book Exchange: Help yourselves and fellow students by participating in the Book Exchange. Sell books at your "designated" price or buy them directly from fellow students. Books will be accepted into the Co-op during finals week: Mon/Tues 8am-8pm; Wed/Thurs. 8am-4pm in Galvin 015 (Student Lounge). Books will be available for sale anytime during finals week or the first week of classes.

Social Problems and Support Organizations Visual Presentation: Members of the Social Trends and Problems class will participate in a "poster session" on local social-problem related organizations on Wed., Dec. 3rd, from 1:15 - 2:30 in Ga 239. Among the organizations included in the poster session are Mothers Against Drunk Driving (MADD), Headstart, Child Abuse Prevention Program (CAP), Northwest Ohio Literacy Council (NOLC), Family Planning Clinic, Association for Children for Enforcement of Support (ACES), Right to Life, Vietnam Veterans of America, and other local-area social-problem organizations.
