NOTES OF INTEREST:

THE COMMUNICATOR APOLOGIZES! - Last week we thoughtlessly used that archaic phrase "women in white" to praise our wonderful health care professionals. Today both women and MEN are finding rewarding careers in serving humanity in the health care field. We Salute All of You!

GUITAR AND FLUTE DUO TO PERFORM - "DUO SEQUENZA", from Valparaiso Univ. in Indiana, will be guest artists on the Noon Series, Thur. May 17 in Rh 160 from 12-1. These young people will perform in Europe and the Far East this summer, having been chosen from over 1000 artists.

"THE ART OF DINING" OPENS THIS WEEK - The new play chosen by Joe Brandesky promises to be a real treat! The curtain will rise in RH Aud. on Fri. & Sat. May 18-19 at 8 pm. Tickets are available in advance or at the door $4.00 adults, $3.00 students, $2.00 Sr. Citizens.

STUDENT ART EXHIBIT OPENS - The 1st Annual Student Art Exhibit opened Sun. May 6 with the awarding of prizes to Lynn Beets, Terri Bendele, Nicole Berendsen, Anna Fisher, John Martin, and Dale Meyers. Out of the 55 works of art were entered by 45 students, 32 works by 22 students (20 OSU, 2 LTC) were selected by Juror, Prof. Judith Greavu of ONU for display. Be sure to stop by RH 160 to see your fellow students' work. (hours are posted)

LTC HONORS STUDENTS & TEACHERS - On Sun. May 20 at 2 pm in the Aud., Lima Technical College will bestow honor upon those students who will graduate with a 3.5-3.9 grade point average. High honors will be given to students with a 3.9 or above G.P.A. The LTC "Outstanding Teacher" awards will also be announced during the ceremony. A reception will follow.

STUDENT SENATE WELCOMES CANDIDATES - The deadline for candidates for the President and Vice-President of the Student Senate is this Thursday. Pick up applications, and info. from the Senate office.

TEXAS INSTRUMENTS COMPUTER CONFERENCE COMING - Over 20 TI 99/4A computer groups from 5 states & Canada are expected at the Conference to be held Fri. & Sat. May 25 & 26 in RH. TI computer users can take advantage of the many workshops to be offered and can check out the latest equipment at the various vendors booths. The conference is FREE. Contact Dr. Charles Good at Ext. 205 for more information.

CONGRATULATIONS TO B.P.A. WINNERS - Four members of our Lima Campus B.P.A. were recognized for high achievement at their National Leadership conference. Hats off to Julia Platt, Jim Puthoff, Gary Wurst, and Tammy Kirkendall!

FIND OUT ABOUT SAMARITAN HOUSE - Representatives from Lima's local shelter for homeless women and children will be on campus 9-1 Tues. May 15 in the GA Bsmt. to inform us about the services they offer. Student Senate is sponsoring a canned and non-perishable food drive to help the center. Do your part!

ATHLETIC NEWS

OUR TENNIS TEAM IS TOPS! - The Men's tennis team shared co-championship honors at the O.R.C.C. tournament held last weekend. Our own Jim Armstrong was the conference champion in the #2 singles spot. Congratulations! Our Women's tennis team took a respectable 5th place in the tournament and our Baron's Golf team won a 4th place in the conference play offs. Baseball makeup dates this week with OU/Zanesville, Miami/Middletown and OU/Chillicothe (away).
