Notes Of Interest

Bravo, Lady Barons! - A big congratulations to our wonderful women's volleyball team: Chris Cooper, Jeri Roney, Stacey Mouser, Denise Weaver, Lisa Critten, Angie Hall, Cory Workman, Tina Adkins, Quincy Dotson, Gina Lepinski, Tina Haggard and coach Bruce Kizer. They won the State Tournament, the Regional Tournament, and completed their season with 47-7 record.

Pianist to Perform - Spend a relaxing hour listening to noted Italian pianist, Claudio Del Prato, on Thurs. Nov. 15, 12:00-12:45 pm, in the auditorium. Signor Del Prato will conduct and perform with the Lima Symphony on Sat. Nov. 17, but we'll get a preview here at Lima Campus!

Are You Heading To The University Of Findlay? - An admissions representative from the University will be on Campus Wed. Nov. 14, from 10am-12pm in the Tech. Lab room 137, to meet with OSU and LTC students about the bachelor degree programs offered and to answer your questions.

"Living Successfully With A Learning Disability"-This is the topic for the Monday Nov. 19 meeting of the L.D. support group in Galvin room 236, 4:00-5:00pm. Guest speaker will be Thomas Schulte, a graduate pharmacist, working in Wapakoneta, who will talk about how he overcame the L.D. hurdle and is now a successful, productive individual.

Calling All Chess Players! - You are invited to participate in a tournament sponsored by the Lima Area Chess Club. Represent Ohio State or Lima Tech in the College Division. Contact Jim Downy, 419-222-3907, for information about the Dec. 1st tournament at the American Mall.

Marketing and Management Drawing Monday - Be sure to purchase your tickets for the Marketing and Management Club's Holiday drawing by Nov. 16 from any club member. Winners will be announced Mon. Nov. 19. Prizes include a cordless telephone and a 10 speed bike. Could be a nice Christmas Present for friends and family!

Revised Bus Schedules Available - Stop by the Student Activities Office GA066 and pick up a revised RTA bus schedule. Our only public transportation was saved by a grant from the Allen Co. Commissioners. Save gas! Ride the bus! Let's help keep this valuable community asset.

What Do You Think? - Do you have any suggestions, complaints, compliments? Student Senate would like to hear from you. Drop your comments in the Student Senate suggestion Boxes located in the lobbies of Galvin, and Tech Lab, in the library in Cook and the Reed Hall Cafeteria.

Toys for Tots - Student Senate is once again sponsoring the Lima Campus annual drive for good used toys, in cooperation with the noon optimists and the Salvation Army. Collection barrels will be located at both entrances to Galvin Halls and the main entrance to Reed Hall through finals week. Let's make this campaign a success so some needy child will have a happy holiday this year.

Lady Baron's Basketball Season Opens at Home - Come support the Lima Campus' women's basketball team this Saturday. Remember, current students are not charged any admission.

Campus Student Leaders To Meet - Leaders of registered student organizations are invited to attend the November Leadership Development Series program on Tuesday Nov. 13. The 4-5:30 pm presentation will focus on communication.

Encore Theatre Opens New Production - Lima community theatre will present Robert Harlings "Steel Magnolias" from Nov. 16-Dec. 1. Contact Encore Theatre at 223-8866 for ticket information.

Cafeteria Special - Mon. Honey Dipped Chicken, Tues. Johnny Marzetti or Baked Potato Bar, Wed. Salisbury Steak or Taco Bar, Thur. Open Face Roast Beef or Potato Skin Bar, Fri. Macaroni and Cheese.

Commons Special - Fish Sandwich and French Fries for $2.10
