NOTES OF INTEREST

HOLIDAY CONCERT IN AUDITORIUM WEDNESDAY - The Lima Campus chorus will present a concert of old and new holiday favorites on Wednesday November 27 at Noon in the Auditorium. Ed Burwell will be a soloist during the performance. The chorus will be co-directed by Dr. Robert Sedoris and Harold Beckett. Kay McAlpine will accompany the ensemble. Spend a quiet hour listening to the "sounds of the season".

START YOUR WEEK WITH SOMETHING SWEET!- The Criminal Justice Student Association has spent the whole weekend baking and cooking to tempt your palate. Stop by their Baked Goods and Sandwich Sale on Monday November 25 anytime from 8:00 a.m.-1:00 p.m. in Galvin Basement and start your week off right!

ATTENTION OSU STUDENTS - All OSU students planning to enroll in the Allied Medical Program for Autumn 1992 must have applications in by November 30, 1991. Be sure to see your advisor for more information.

CHRISTMAS IS GIVING - Make someone happy this holiday season. Don't forget the Student Senate/Optimist Club TOYS for TOTS campaign going on now. Bring in those good usable or NEW toys that you would like to donate and place them in the gift wrapped containers placed in all the buildings. Games and toys for older children (8-12) are particularly needed. The Minority Student Union is asking you to please donate canned goods and other staple foods (spaghetti, beans, rice, etc) for their "Food Baskets for the Needy" project! Containers have been placed in all the buildings and the food drive will continue until the end of the quarter.

"AFTER SCHOOL CENTERS" HELP PARENTS - The After School Centers program

provides before and after school supervision for children whose parents work or go to school. The program, for youngsters Kindergarten through 6th grade will include storytelling, athletics, nature study, confidence building and leadership training. Sites for the first two centers will be Jefferson School on S. Sugar St. and Lowell School on W. Spring St. Trudy Page of the YWCA has been named administrator of the program and she will be happy to give you more information. Just call the YWCA 228-8664.

"NO SMOKING" ZONE PROPOSAL BEING STUDIED - As a result of a Student Senate Survey, a proposal to make the Reed Hall Cafeteria a NO SMOKING zone is being studied. This would make Reed Hall a no Smoking building - except for private offices. If you have any comments or suggestions on this plan let Dr. Meek (OSU) or Dr. Countryman (LTC) know your thoughts on the subject. The administration would like to put this new rule into effect starting Winter quarter.

DISTINGUISHED TEACHING AWARD FORMS NOW AVAILABLE - You really thought that Prof was great! You could actually understand what he/she was talking about. The subject just came alive for you. Well, why don't you nominate your favorite teacher for the Distinguished Teaching Award? One OSU and one LTC faculty member will be chosen in May. Nominating forms are now available in the Communicator Boxes in all buildings lobbies, Business office in TEL, Financial Aid, GA 107, Student Activities GA 066, LTC/OSU Registration GA 205, in the Library, and Cafeteria.

GAME ROOM ANNOUNCES POOL TOURNEY WINNERS - Dwain Burkholder was victorious over runner-up Scott McClure in the Game Room's Fall Pool Tournament. Dwain received a $30.00 gift certificate to the Bookstore for his effort. Our congratulations to both Dwain and Scott.

ATHLETIC NEWS - Men's Basketball team's first home game is Tues. Nov. 26 at 7:00 against Sinclair. Anyone attending games in November and December will receive a FREE Basketball Schedule Poster. Remember, admission to all games is FREE to students, just show your I.D. at the door. The Baron's will host OU/Chillicothe here at 3:00 on Sat. Nov. 30. Bring the family out for some weekend fun! Coach Cynthia Spiers promises that this years Lady Barons team will attempt to repeat last years tremendous success. With four of last years starters back and an eager group of new players, the team looks awesome! Watch them in action here Saturday against OU/Chillicothe at 1:00.

LOST AND FOUND WILL CLEAN HOUSE DEC. 6 - Any items in the Lost and Found (Student Activities Office - GA066) that haven't been claimed by Friday Dec. 6 will be given to a non-profit organization. If you have lost any books, calculators, umbrellas, KEYS, sunglasses, clothing, jewelry, or anything else please check with Lost and Found by Friday Dec. 6.

GALVIN SNACKBAR SPECIAL - Jumbo Hot Dob (1/4 lb.) and F.F. $1.75.
CAFETERIA THANKSGIVING SPECIAL - TUESDAY - Turkey, dressing, mashed potatoes, vegetable, roll, and pumpkin pie - $3.95.
