NOTES OF INTEREST

"JAZZ LIGHT" REPLACES "PORGY AND BESS" - A change in programming brings vocalist Tesa (Brenneman) James, together with pianist Don Hurless, trumpeter Brad Stauffer, and percussionist John Jarrett in a concert called "Jazz Light" on Tuesday January 28th at Noon in the AUDITORIUM. This program replaces the "Porgy and Bess" presentation originally scheduled. Stop by and relax for an hour with this "easy listening" group.

FIRST BAKE SALE OF THE QUARTER WEDNESDAY - Business Professionals of America promise to bring some mouth watering morsels for your enjoyment on Wednesday January 29th in Galvin Basement from 9 a.m.-2 p.m. They're offering hot drinks for sale too. In case of bad weather (perish the thought!) Friday January 31st is the snow date - same time and place.

JOB BOARD IS A SERVICE FOR EVERYONE - Local employers seeking help post notices on the JOB BOARD on the 2nd floor of Galvin Hall. These positions are open to all qualified Campus people. Please DO NOT REMOVE THE NOTICES. Just Copy the information. The notices will continue to be posted until the job is filled or until we are notified by the employer that it is not available.

SCHWARZENEGGER FILM PLAYS THURSDAY - From terminator to tenderheart - Schwarzenegger will capture your heart as the "KINDERGARTEN COP", the film to be shown Thursday January 30th at 9am and 12 noon in the Galvin Student Lounge. ART EXHIBIT CHALLENGES IMAGINATION - Be sure to see the unusual exhibit of ceramic wall sculptures by Bluffton College professor Greg Luginbuhl now on display in Reed Hall 160. Luginbuhl has used the biblical "Creation" story as the idea for a set of eight wall sculptures. Other pieces in the Show includes a series of fish sculptures and some abstract plates. Luginbuhl likes fish as a subject because of their form and movement. Color plays an important part in Luginbuhl's work. The show can be viewed through February 9. (Gallery hours are posted throughout the Campus).

ALMOST ALL NIGHTER COMING FEBRUARY 7! - That annual evening of fun and frolic is almost here! Friday February 7th is the date to remember. Light refreshments will be provided and it's all FREE! A good way to get rid of the mid winter blahs!
