NOTES OF INTEREST

HAPPY APRIL FOOL'S WEEK! - Many explanations have been offered for the custom of playing practical jokes on the first of April, but there is agreement on none of them. Most scholars feel it has something to do with the Spring equinox.

STUDENT BOOK EXCHANGE OPEN - The Student Senate Book Exchange will be open Mon. March 30 and Tues. March 31 from 9am-2pm and from 4pm-6pm in the Galvin Basement. On Wed, Thurs, Fri, April 1, 2, and 3 the hours are from 9am-2pm. Books will be accepted for resale until Noon on Mon March 30.

BOOK STORE HAS EXPANDED HOURS - During the first week of Spring quarter the Bookstore will be open Mon. March 30 through Thurs. April 2 from 8am-8pm. Starting on Mon. April 6, the Bookstore's regular hours will be Mon. and Tues. 8am-6pm and on Wed., Thurs., and Fri. from 8am-4:30pm. The Bookstore has added computer equipment and software sales. Check out prices and packages available for Apple Macintosh computers.

JAZZ GREAT JOE HENDERSON TO PERFORM ON CAMPUS-Joe Henderson, world renown jazz saxophone player, was born in Lima and will return to perform on campus April 16 at 8 p.m. As a special offer, 100 free tickets are available to current OSU and LTC students. Stop by the Student Activities Office with your current I.D. to pick up one ticket. General admission is $7.00. Due to the limited seating and strong community interest - get your tickets now!

"APPALACHIAN SPRING" IS HONORS PRESENTATION - On Wed April 1, Dr. Eric Juterbock, OSU Associate Professor of Zoology, will present a colorful slide and sound program on the environmental Spring awakening in the Appalachian Mountain region. The program will occur at Noon in RH160.

CONSTRUCTION CONTINUES TO EFFECT TRAFFIC - There is a NEW STOP SIGN at Campus Drive and Biddle Drive making that corner a Three Way Stop. Watch to make sure all cars and construction vehicles stop!

FIRST STAGING OF RUSSIAN PLAY TO BE PRESENTED THIS WEEKEND - Playwright Sergei Task (visiting guest of OSU Lima Theatre Department) will lead the audience through a studio presentation of "Two Tyrants" on Saturday at 8pm in the Auditorium. Don't miss this interesting (and FREE) evening.

NORTHWEST JOB FAIR - If you have not registered to participate in the EMPLOY-NET JOB FAIR being held April 2 at Owens Tech, you may still do so Mon. March 30 and Tues. March 31. To register, bring one copy of your resume to LTC Placement Services in 205 Galvin and complete a simple registration card. A list of participating employers is available. Recruiters will be seeking students for fulltime, summer and internship positions in all majors including business, engineering tech and health.

ENGINEERING AND INDUSTRIAL TECHNOLOGY MAJORS - Reservations for the Ohio Northern University Industrial Technology Department 2+2 Informational Dinner this Thursday are due by Tues. March 31. Contact Judie Biddle in Tech Lab 134 or call her at 221-1112 ext. 372 to sign up. For more information about the event, contact LTC Placement Services.

OSU STUDENTS TO ELECT UNDERGRADUATE STUDENT GOVERNMENT REPRESENTATIVE -Next Tues. and Wed. are voting days to elect an OSU-Lima student to USG in Columbus; Matt Warren is on the ballot for this position. Watch for information about USG, so that you can make a good decision.

MAY WEEK PLANNING CONTINUES - Social Activities Board needs more members to help with a variety of events planned for the campus' Spring Festival. The next May Week Meeting is scheduled for April 6th! If interested, stop by the Student Activities Office (GA066).

WALK, JOG, STROLL, OR RUN - But be sure to do the SUPER CITIES WALK for Multiple Sclerosis on Saturday April 4. This 10K (6.2 miles) walk will begin and end at Faurot Park. Pick up a pledge card today from Linda Benson in Cook 224 or call her at 221-1641 ext. 282 for more information.

KINGS ISLAND OFFERS STUDENT DAYS - Pick up a discount coupon (worth $6.00) from the Student Activities Office (GA066) and use it on April 11 & 12, 18 & 19, 25 & 26. Adult admission is $16.50 with the coupon; children (up to 6yrs.) $10.95, and children under 2 are free! Plan your weekend of fun Now!
