NOTES OF INTEREST

HOW FAR HAVE WE COME? - How far have we come since that day when Martin Luther King, Jr. gave us his vision of a peaceful land, of people of all races and colors working together, of harmony and happiness for all in his "I Have A Dream" speech? Not very far many would say. Let us pause today and resolve to make that vision a reality - "with peace and brotherhood for all".

ARTIST DAVID SAPP HERE TUESDAY - Ashland University professor David Sapp will present a "gallery talk" on Tuesday January 19 at noon in Reed Hall. The artist's large black and white drawings and collages will be on view through February 7. Sapp combines found objects with line drawings in the collages to express his interest in eroticism, humor, and gadgets. Come meet the artist over punch and cookies after the program. The exhibition "gallery hours" are posted throughout campus.

CAMPUS SECRETARIES AWARD SCHOLARSHIPS - Congratulations go to Beth Recker (LTC) and Jodi Mezinger (OSU) recipients of $350 scholarships recently awarded by the Lima Campus Secretarial Association. Beth is in the LTC Office Administration program while Jodi is pursuing a degree in International Business Administration. The recipients were chosen for their outstanding academic achievements and their commitment to education.

DENIRO STARS IN THURSDAY THRILLER - Want to be scared stiff?! Don't miss Robert Deniro in the remake of that classic chiller "Cape Fear." The S.A.B. will screen the movie for your enjoyment at 10:00 and Noon on Thursday January 21 in the Galvin Student Lounge (GA015).

BOOKSTORE HAS NEW HOURS - The Galvin Bookstore will be open from 8:00 a.m.-6:00 p.m. Mondays through Thursdays and from 8:00 a.m.-4:30 p.m. on Fridays. The Bookstore is currently selling the 1993 OSU Basketball cards package for $5.95. Check out their supply of T-shirts and sweatshirts. And their front counters offer all the delights of the old time candy store! Shop the Bookstore for all your school needs.

DON'T GET SMASHED! - Not the alcoholic variety, but really smashed - on the pavement in the street! PLEASE use the sidewalk in the area in front of Galvin Hall going to and from the parking lots. That area is a two-way street and it is definitely dangerous for students walking in the middle of it! We don't want to lose any of you!

LEARNING ASSISTANCE AVAILABLE FOR OSU STUDENTS - Do you have difficulty reading and retaining material, taking notes, comprehending math symbols, formulas, and word problems, expressing ideas either orally or in written form? These may all be symptoms of a learning disability. If you think you fit this picture contact Jeanette Carter in Galvin 420D, Mondays 9:30-5:00 and Tuesdays 9:00-12:00, or leave your name and phone number in an envelope on the door. Improve your learning skills!

TUTORS NEEDED - If you would like to help a fellow student in the subjects of General Psychology, Economics, or WordPerfect see Diane Jones in GA205 today. You'll make some extra money but, what's more, you'll be able to make a difference in someone's life.

BUSINESS PROFESSIONALS MEET TUESDAY - The upcoming State Competitive Events to be held in March will be the topic of discussion at the Business Professionals of America meeting on Tuesday Jan. 19, 11:00-12:00 in the GA205 Conference Room. Come with ideas for fund raising projects to help send contestants to this competition at Wright State/Celina.

WIN A TRIP TO THE "FINAL FOUR" - It's as easy as writing your name! Pick up a registration form in the Athletic Office (CK105), Student Activities (GA066) or in specially marked boxes around campus and enter today. First prize is a trip to the NCAA "Final Four" in New Orleans. Other top prizes include a trip to the OHSAA Final Four in Columbus, a color TV, and a new basketball. Co-sponsored by TV 44, Ohio State/Lima and other local sponsors.

COLLEGIATE QUARTET COMPETITION ANNOUNCED - Do you harmonize and vocalize with three other guys? The national Barbershop Quartet society is sponsoring their annual college competition at various sites throughout North America from March to May. Finals will be in Calgary, Alberta, Canada in June. There is a $4000 top prize to the winners. Contact Bill Rashleigh at 1-800-876-Sing for more information.

ATHLETIC NEWS - Away games this week for both the men's and women's teams on Saturday at OU/Chillicothe and on Sunday at O.U./Lancaster. Get in shape this winter with Intramural 5 on 5 men's and women's Basketball, 6 on 6 Co-Ed Volleyball, and 4 on 4 Whiffleball. Now is the time to sign up for one of these super sports. Call Rob at Ext. 281 or stop by Cook 105 and say you'll play!

GALVIN COMMONS SPECIAL - Bratwurst and Sauerkraut - $2.50
