NOTES OF INTEREST

IRAQ IS SUBJECT OF PROFESSOR'S TALK- Mohammed Al Sa Doun, a native of IRAQ, will speak about his homeland at a noon presentation on Tuesday May 25 in Reed Hall 160. Professor Al Sa Doun received his M.A. in Art Education from the University of Hartford (Conn) and is currently a member of the Fine Arts Department at OSU/Lima. He worked as the head of the Cultural Department for the Iraq Broadcasting Co., as an editor and translator for Japan Broadcasting Corp., as Secretary of the Iraqi Artists Society, and has had several teaching assignments in this country and abroad. Professor Al Sa Doun will be happy to answer your questions about this ancient and alien land after the presentation.

TOP TEACHERS NAMED - At the Faculty-Staff Recognition Dinner on Friday May 21, Mohamed Yousif, Assistant Professor of Mathematics at OSU/Lima and Teri Wies Haithcock, Assistant Professor/Coordinator of Corrections for LTC were honored by the Lima Campus student body with the 1993 DISTINGUISHED TEACHER AWARDS. Congratulations to these outstanding educators and a BIG thanks to all of our fine professors.

STUDENT SENATE ELECTS LEADERS - The Lima Campus student body has affirmed the slate of Jamie Wildermuth (LTC), President, Brian Snyder (OSU), Vice President, and Cindy Ferkins (LTC), Vice President as their Student Senate leaders for the 1993-1994 academic year. Our Best Wishes for a successful year!

STUDENT LEADERS TO BE HONORED TUESDAY- In recognition of the many hard working, capable, and committed campus student leaders, a Dessert Reception will be held in their honor on Tuesday May 25 at Lost Creek Country Club from 7:30 p.m. to 9:00 p.m. At that time the Distinguished Student Leader award and the Emerging Student Leader award will be announced.

CONGRATULATIONS TO ART SHOW WINNERS- The work of 17 student artists was chosen by juror Doug Drury for the 3rd Annual Student Art Exhibit which opened on Sunday May 16. Russ Daum was awarded the $100.00 First prize for his "Night of the Dangerous Carnivore." Second prize of $50.00 went to Michael Liles for "Smiling Two Faced Man." Sherry Kill's "Mohammed's Revenge" captured a $25.00 third award. The two Cultural Affairs Committee awards of $25.00 were given to Elizabeth Wannemacher for "Ink Nude" and to Shirley White for "Geraniums in a Cardboard Box." Jim Baumgardner's "Hank", and Russ Daum's "Killer Comedian" garnered $5.00 Honorable mentions awards. Stop by Reed Hall 160, on your way to class or the Cafeteria, and enjoy the works of your fellow students!

CAMPUS BATTLE OF THE BUSINESSES TEAM NEEDS YOU!- Come on out on Saturday June 12 and either walk or run a 5K (3 miles) course for the honor of OSU/LTC! All faculty, staff, and work study students are invited to participate in this event that opens the week long city-wide "Battle of the Businesses." Last year our team had 45 supporters. Let's try to break that record! Call Tillie Schiffler at #221 or see her in GA 066 to sign up before May 26.

A BIG THANKS TO THE MARKETING AND MANAGEMENT CLUB- The Marketing and Management Club's Lemonade stand, during the May Week festivities, brought in over $50.00 to help student Carole Cass purchase her new guide dog. -- And last week's "Corrections/Challengers Drawing" winner, Carl Hollar, has donated his $200.00 grand prize back to Carole! Great thing to do, Carl! Many thanks!
