This year’s production is Snowgirl, an original play by Dr. Maria Ignatieva, Program Coordinator of Children’s Theatre at Ohio State-Lima. Based on characters from Russian folktales and a couple of her own creations, Dr. Ignatieva has developed an enchanting plot which will charm audiences of all ages. Shows are open to the public Friday, November 22 and Saturday, 23 at 8:00 pm, and Sunday, November 24 at 2:00 pm in Reed Hall Auditorium. For ticket prices and reservations, call (419) 995-8382.

SNOWGIRL

The story begins with a dilemma--Father Frost (Russian Santa Claus) failed to deliver presents on time last year and must come up with a miracle or he will be fired by Miss Winter. As he struggles to do so, Baba Yaga, a cunning witch, suggests that Father Frost build a snowgirl out of a small snowdrift. Baba Yaga secretly hopes to have Snowgirl as her servant and maid. Father Frost takes Baba Yaga's suggestions and Snowgirl is born with one significant glitch. She will melt when spring comes unless a handsome, young man kisses her. Sashka and Yashka, two wood demons and Baba Yaga's grandchildren set out to help Snowgirl. Balda, our handsome young man, overhears the conversation and decides to come to Snowgirl's rescue, but he doesn't know what she looks like. Sashka and Yashka kidnap him and take him to Baba Yaga's house on chicken legs. Snowgirl knows that Sashka and Yashka have kidnapped Balda and decide to find him and set him free. To see how this story ends, you will have to come to one of the performances. For ticket information, please call (419) 995-8382.
