Notes of Interest

No Classes--Wednesday: This Wednesday is Veteran's Day so classes will not meet and offices will be closed. The labs and the library will also be closed. Over 1,000 area high school students will fill the classrooms as participants of the Campus' Annual Career Day.

Folk Artist to perform songs of New England: Margaret MacArthur, nationally-known folk historian, will perform in SAB 160 from 12-1 on Monday.

Duo to feature French music on Thursday: The Psaltery will perform on Thursday from 12-1 in SAB. The duo will perform traditional French and French-Canadian folk songs on guitar with vocal accompaniment.

Social Activities Board expands Meeting Times: SAB, the student group responsible for providing on-campus events, is adding a second weekly meeting time. Interested individuals may attend either the Friday 1 p.m. meeting or the NEW Tuesday at 3 p.m. time. Both meetings are held in GA 135. New ideas and members are always needed!!

Three One Act Plays Offered this Week: The Campus Theatre Department will present the fall production on Friday and Saturday evening. Thursday will be a free open dress rehearsal. All nights begin at 8 p.m. in the SAB Auditorium. Cost for students is a bargain at $2.50. Non-student tickets cost $3.00. For advance tickets, see the secretary in SAB.

The three plays include: Graceland (where Elvis still reigns), Eris (a psycho thriller), and It's a Sin to Tell a Lie (a special love story).

Campus Writers Change Meeting Time: OSU/LTC Writers Group will now meet on Fridays at 12 noon in GA 134. The next meeting will feature a Fiction Writing Exercise, led by Will Wells. All campus writers are encouraged to attend.

Marketing/Management Club sponsors speaker: The Marketing/Management Club welcomes a representative from Diller Medical (Bluffton) for this week's meeting. The program will be held 11-12 in GA 119 on Thursday.

Rape to be Topic at Honors Colloquium: The OSU Honors Society will present a lecture by Dr. William Shields on Monday, November 16. Shields will discuss "Forcible Rape: Current Perspectives and Criticisms of Evolutionary Analyses: at noon in the SAB Auditorium.

Atari Computer Owners Alert: The Lima Campus is about to have an Atari Users Group. All interested members should attend the organizational meeting on Friday 11:30-12:30 in Cook 231. For additional information, contact Mike Wurst (CK 230D).

Student Senate Circulates Petitions: Student Senate members are currently collecting signatures in support of a traffic light at the corner of Mumaugh and Rte. The Senate is hoping to collect 1,000 signatures from campus, which will be forwarded to the Ohio Department of Transportation.

Groups sponsor fund-raisers: Dental Hygiene students are offering chances for a Thanksgiving turkey and ham while the Respiratory Care students will have home baked goodies on Monday in Cook Hall Lobby.

WOSL Sponsors OSU vs. Michigan Sideline Party: The 2nd Annual OSU vs. Michigan Sideline Party will be held on Saturday, Nov. 21 from 12-5 p.m., at the Best Western Motel. For a price of $3 ($3.50 day of game), participants get choice seats (in front of Big Screen TV), food, novelties, and lots of fun. Tickets are available from WOSL Radio (GA 033) and the Student Activities Office (GA 015).

Congratulations to the Fall Euchre Tourney winners: Tim Bok and Bart Best. Also a hand goes to Kevin Whitt and Keith Stechsulte for taking second place.
