Spring Quarter
Week 7

From the Student Activities Office (SAO)

Welcome to week 7 of Spring Quarter! Have fun and enjoy the May Week activities. Events will be taking place Monday thru Thursday.

Students GET INVOLVED with campus activities and have a chance to win prizes, including a $100 GAS CARD!!! Simply stop by the SAO and pick up an I-Card. The I-Card promotes involvement in campus activities by encouraging students to attend a minimum of 10 events that are happening across the campus. (Students who complete their I-Cards by obtaining an I-Card stamp from attending an activity are eligible to be entered into a drawing to win a $100 gas card!) THERE ARE PLENTY OF CHANCES TO RECEIVE STAMPS DURING MAY WEEK!!!

Look for the I-Card Logo to know if an event qualifies for a stamp. For more information contact Amy Livchak at livchak.2@osu.edu or call (419) 995-8414.

Columbus campus tours for regional campus students

May 7, 14, 21; July 13; or August 10, from 9:00am– 11:00 am

Created specifically for potential OSU campus change students, this walking tour takes you around the Columbus campus and includes a tour of a residence hall. Along the way you'll learn some of the traditions and history that make the Columbus campus such a special place.

RSVP by e-mailing: askfye@osu.edu with the date you'd like to attend, your full name and e-mail address, the number of people in your group, and the campus you are currently attending. More information is also available at the advising and admissions offices in Public Services Building.

2007 Career Expo and Job Fair

Rhodes State Students:

Is your resume up-to-date and ready for the Career Expo and Job Fair on May 9th?

If not and you need some help, stop by the Career Placement Office, Public Service 150 and pick up resume writing information with samples. They are open 8am – 5pm. If you are an evening student, call and they will get a copy to you or stay later to help you out.

Remember your resume needs to be perfect, so getting it done as soon as possible provides the chance to review it before the job fair.

Also, do you have your interview clothes cleaned and ready? Remember you only get one chance to make a good first impression.

2007 Career Expo and Job Fair
Wednesday, May 9th
10:00 am – 2:00 pm
Cook Hall Gymnasium

PALS Events
(Performing Arts & Lecture Series)

Jack Shortlidge, See the Man with Stage Fright: Bob Dylan's Career as an Artist & Performer May 14th, 12:30-1:30 p.m., Reed Hall 160

Jack Shortlidge has an M.A. from The Ohio State University. He has worked as a public sector folklorist for arts organizations in northeast Ohio and southern New Jersey, and has taught courses in English composition, literature, and folklore at various colleges in the same locations. He is currently a program officer for the Ohio Humanities Council. This program will discuss Bob Dylan's 40 year career as a songwriter and performer. During those years his work has provoked both acclaim and criticism: listeners and musical colleagues have praised him as an artistic poseur and a commercial sell-out. This presentation will provide an overview of Dylan's career as well as discussing examples of selected songs composed during 1963-1967, including "Subterranean Homesick Blues," "Bob Dylan's Dream," and "Like a Rolling Stone."

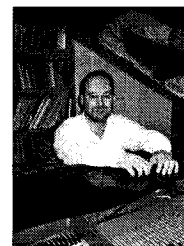

Professor Olga Muratova, Crime in the Theatre May 17th, 12:30-1:30 p.m., Stage II, Reed Hall

Crime is arguably the second popular subject of Western drama (the first still being love). From formidable lawbreakers to petty thieves, from regicide to con artistry, criminals have won extraordinary theatrical success. The attraction of detective, courtroom, and crime-and-justice plays is undeniable; the appeal of outlaws is irrefutable. Olga is a native of Moscow, Russia. She is a professor of Russian Studies at the Department of Foreign Languages and Literatures, John Jay College of Criminal Justice New York City, USA. She received her MA degree in Foreign Languages at the Moscow University of Linguistics and is currently working on her doctorate dissertation at the Department of Comparative Literature, Graduate Center, City University of New York. She is a regular contributor to Slavic and East European Performance, a journal published by the Institute for Contemporary East European Drama and Theatre.
