Notes of Interest

CONGRATULATIONS Lady Baron's Volleyball Team: For the fourth consecutive year, the Lima Campus women's Volleyball team has won their conference! The team defeated Miami Univ.-Hamilton and Miami Univ.-Chillicothe, lost to Miami Univ.-Middletown; based on overall points, the Lady Barons came in first! State Tournament was this past weekend, so more news will come later!

DANCE, DANCE DANCE: Give the campus social life a try! This Saturday, Nov. 8, the French Club (L'Esprit francais) will sponsor a dance featuring 92ZOO. The dance will be held in the SAB Cafeteria 9pm - 12 midnight. Cost for students is $1.00, $1.25 for non-students.

Remember, you must bring an I.D. (and be over 18 years old). Advance Tickets will be sold this week, so watch for a ticket booth.

Help the Special Olympics: OEA (Office Education Assoc.) will build a chain of love to benefit the Special Olympics this week. For a 50 cent donation, one link to the chain will be obtained; the donor can write a name or message and add the link to the chain. The chain will be displayed in Tech. Lab Lobby, and links will be available at that location or from OEA members.

Career day: Over 1,000 high students will visit the campus on Tues. Nov. 11 between 9am. - 12noon. Several student volunteers are needed to direct the visitors. Contact Carole Enneking in GA015C if interested!

YOU can be part of the Social Program Board: Do you wonder how special events are planned on campus? Would you like to be involved, but do not have much time? Could you help with dances, movies, variety show, May Week, noon events? Sounds like you might be interested in SPB! Find out more information by attending an open meeting on Wed. Nov. 5, 1986 from 12-1pm in GA 260. Or contact Carole Enneking in Ga 015C.

SNEA to meet: interested education majors are invited to a noon meeting on Tuesday. The featured speaker is Dr. Gretta Kumpf! Location GA 432.

Goodies for Sale: The french club will sponsor a bake sale on Monday beginning at 7:30am in the Galvin basement. Be sure to stop by and see what delicacies they have for sale.

Special Guest for Noon Series: due to the current strike by musicians at the Columbus Symphony, a solo harpist is available to perform on campus. Jude Mollenhauer, principal harpist, will present a program of classical harp pieces from 12-1pm in SAB 160 on Thursday. Works by Debussy, Beethoven, Handel, Prokofieff, and Salzedo will be performed.

Library Hours Reminder: The campus library is available for quiet study and research -

Mon. - Thurs. 8am - 9pm
Fri. - 8am - 5pm
Sat./Sun. - 1pm - 5pm

O.S.U. vs. Michigan Football Game Plans: WOSL will sponsor a Sideline Party on Sat. Nov. 22, 1986 at the Quality Inn. $5.00 covers large screen TV, food and beverages. Advance Tickets are available in the WOSL Station (GA 033).

Watercolor Art Exhibit planned Nov. 9 -23: Jaye Bumbaugh, artist and Bluffton College professor, will display eight large (40 x 60 ) watercolor paintings in Room 160 of the Student Activities Building. The exhibit is open to both campus and public at no cost for viewing.
