Notes of Interest

Extra Seats Available for Illustrator Concert - This week's Christian Concert will be a full house; all of the regular seats are taken. Fifty folding chairs will be added and will be available on a first-come, first-serve basis. Doors open at 7:30 pm for the 8 pm concert, so get there early for a good seat.

Tree Dedication Planned - A locust tree will be planted in memory of OSU Student Sheryl Golden on Monday, Nov. 21 at 12:00 pm in the front arbor.

Campus Faculty to Entertain on Tuesday - The Ha! Ha! Players will comment on food as part of the Noon Entertainment Series. The Ha! Ha! Players examined popular topics by sharing favorite readings, quotations, and play excerpts. Tuesday's programs will begin at 12:00 pm in RH 160.

Catch the Art In Reed Hall - A collection of art works by David Adams is currently on display in RH 160. The exhibition features serious prints and comic drawings. Adams often examines social issues through both serious and humorous means. Viewing will be available on Monday from 12-2 pm or after the Noon program on Tuesday.

Hayride Ticket Refunds Available - Due to the cold rainy evening on November 4, the campus hayride was cancelled. The Social Activities Board has decided not to reschedule the event this quarter. All persons holding a ticket can receive a refund from the Student Activities Office.

Take 5 For Meditation - New Directions, a group of students interested in Christian fellowship, sponsors a 15 minute meditation at 7:30 am or 10:30 am daily. Stop in as your time allows.

Lima Rings in the Holiday Season - Santa will arrive at the caboose in Town Square at 11:00 am on Friday, November 25.

Thanksgiving Holiday This Week - The students, faculty, and staff will celebrate Thanksgiving with a long weekend. For your information - the Library will not have operating hours; the Computer Lab will be open on Friday (12-5 pm) and Saturday (12-5 pm). All general offices will be closed.

Catch the Student Perspective on Monday - November's newspaper is scheduled to hit the hallways on Monday. Be sure to read the Student's Perspective of the Lima Campus.

Your Donations are Needed - The Lima Campus Student Senate with the Optimist Club are sponsoring The Toys for Tots program. Collections barrels for your donations are located in the Galvin Lobby. Donations of canned goods are also being collected for Thanksgiving baskets. The last day to bring in food items is Tuesday.

Peace Tree to be Displayed on Campus - The New Minority Student Union will sponsor a campus tree of peace. Members of the group will supply ornaments from different nationalities. Students from campus are welcome to bring in an ornament celebrating their heritage. Any groups wishing to contribute toward the tree should contact Regina Clark (advisor), Mike McGill or Fred Lash.

Turkey Run Scheduled for Monday - This annual fun run will take place on Monday, November 21 (not Tuesday as reported last week). Check in at the Athletics Office at 12:00 pm.

Baron Basketball Opens at Home - The men's basketball team opens at home on Tuesday, November 22 at 7:30 pm in the Cook Hall gymnasium. Lima Campus students with ID are admitted for free.
