

Happy Halloween! - Don't miss the horror movie!

Premature Burial, at 10:30 (Aud) or 1:30 (GA 015)

The story written by Edgar Allen Poe describes being buried alive.

Costume Judging Contest: There will be a Halloween Costume Contest today, at noon in the SAB Auditorium. Anyone interested in participating in the contest should show up by 11:45am. Let's fill the auditorium and cheer the contestants on! It should be a fun-filled hour.

Weightlifting Club: Interested in working out in the weight room, but hate going in alone? Sign-up in Ck 105 for informal group workouts (both men and women) or even competitions.

Tom over Porn?: Have you noticed the posters and boxes around campus? On November 10th, from 11:00-1:00pm, the campus will host a debate on the issue of pornography and its availability within the community. Feel free to submit questions in the boxes provided that you would like to have addressed during the debate. Be sure to express your opinions!!

UFO's: Do you believe in unidentified flying objects and extra-terrestrial life? John Timmerman (Chairman of the Center for UFO Studies) will address the campus on Nov. 7 (Monday) from 12:00-1:00 in SAB 160. Slides will be shown so you can see the evidence for yourself.

Women's Volleyball: The Lady Baron's have a busy schedule this week. On Tuesday, they play ONU JV's and Edison State in Ada (7:00pm); on Thursday, they play Edison State and Urbana College at home (7:00pm); and over the weekend the ORCC State Tournament occurs at Kent State University Stark.
Good-luck ladies!!

Election Day, Nov. 8: The November elections are coming up. This is an important election for college students. Issue #1 raises the drinking age to 21 years of age, and thus ends the tradition of campus parties with alcohol. Issues #2 and #3 affect the level of income taxation. Passage of these issues will definitely affect tuition costs and programming on campus. Be sure to examine these three state issues. Your opinions count!

Reminder: Do you have any Campus events or information you would like to submit to The Lima Campus: This Week? The deadline is Wednesday of each week. See Carole Enneking or Patti Shuck in GA 015.
