NOTES OF INTEREST

The Dining Room: This weekend, the Lima Campus Theatre department will present the Spring Production. The Dining Room is a light comedy depicting life in American Dining Rooms. The plays feature both OSU and LTC students who have been working very hard on the production. Thursday evening is the open dress rehearsal (FREE ADMISSION) and the Friday and Saturday performances will take place at 8:30 p.m. in the Auditorium. Tickets cost $3.00 per person, $1.50 for students and are available before the weekend (in SAB) or at the door. Don't miss this production!!

Anyone interested in working with elderly people: an opportunity for you is available at the Oaks Convalescent Center. The center is looking for volunteers to help with activities and some therapy. This work is not the standard bedside work - but rather the activities for the residents. Tuesday, May 22, a representative from the center will present a slide show and offer information about the center. Stop by GA 236 on Tuesday from 12-1 if you are interested.

Noon Series: The last Noon Series Program of the year will be held this week.

It will feature two campus groups: The recording Group and a special ensemble of the Campus Chorus. The Recorder group will perform selections from the 16th Century (Spain & England) for the first half of the program. The second half will feature a special group from the chorus who will perform a "revue" style who with singing, dancing, and true entertainment. See you on Thursday.

WANTED: Interested persons to help on Tuesday, May 29 with a Roadblock Collection for the March of Dimes. Only an hour of time is needed. See Carole Enneking if interested.

Remember: Memorial Day is observed on Wednesday of next week NOT Monday!!!
