NOTES OF INTEREST

Magician to Appear- Bob Garner will return to campus on Tuesday for a close-up show and stage show. Garner will perform close-up magic from 11:00-11:45 in the Student Lounge & Commons; his stage show will be held in the Cafeteria. The show was brought back by popular demand, don't miss it!

(We need people to saw in half and more...)

9-ball Pool Tournament-The next pool tournament begins on Wednesday. The game is 9-ball; both men and women will compete together in this tournament. For a cost of $1.00 you get a double elimination tournament consisting of best of 7 games! That's a lot of pool!! See gamesroom attendants for sign-up.

Holiday Observed-Monday is Veteran's Day and classes do not meet. So, enjoy an extra long weekend! See ya Tuesday, Nov. 12.

Art Assoc. Film Series-The campus documentary film series finishes with Born in Flames at 7:30pm on Tuesday, in the Auditorium. The film examines the role of women ten years after a Social-Democratic revolution in America.

Career Day Volunteers- On Monday, November 11, 900 area high school students will be visiting campus to learn about various careers. Volunteers from campus are still needed to help direct the visitors to classrooms on campus. An informational meeting will be held, see Carole Enneking (GA 015) for details.

Athletics-Men's Basketball begins their season on Saturday, November 9th at 7:30pm. Help support the team, come out and see them play. There will also be an Alumni Men's Basketball game at 5:30pm before the Baron's kick off their 1985-86 season.

Women's Volleyball-won Conference Championship for 4th year in a row!!
The scores were:
