NOTES OF INTEREST

Film Series Finishes-Incorrectly listed as last weeks film-BORN IN FLAMES will be shown in the Campus Auditorium Tuesday at 7:30pm. Anyone interested in Women's Issues or Concerns should be interested in viewing this film. The documentary is set in the future but examines the role of women in the present and in the future. Cost for the film is $2.50. The series is co-sponsored by the Lima Art Association and the campus Cultural Affairs Committee.

Women Among Us-The campus Women's group will hold their monthly noon meeting on Tuesday from 12-1pm in SAB 160. Join them to find out what is happening with the organization.

Student National Education Assoc.-SNEA will meet on Tuesday from 12-1 for a speaker, Dr. Christine San Jose, in room GA 446. She will be speaking about Story Theatre. Bring a Sack lunch.

Campus Connection-Yes, we do have a campus newspaper! Deadline for the November issue has just past, now typesetting must be done. If you want to learn what typesetting is or are experienced...join the group at 1:00 Wednesday. The paper will be completely produced on Friday, when lay-out is scheduled. The paper will hit the campus in print on Wednesday, Nov. 20. Sound fun, stop by the newspaper office (GA 015B-located in the rear of the Student Lounge), between 12-1 T/R or 1-2 MWF.

Student Senate-The full Student Senate will meet on Tuesday from 12-1pm in the Galvin Hall Conference Rm. Students with ideas, problems, suggestions, etc are invited to attend. The Senate is currently planning: Activities Survey of Students, general policy survey of students, and a fund-raiser "Turkeys for Toys". Watch for more information on these and more projects.

Noon Entertainment Series-Christmas is coming early on campus. The Lima Madrigal Singers will entertain the campus on Thursday from 12-12:45pm in SAB 160. The repertoire will include many seasonal madrigal songs and a few Spring Classics. The group consists of nine talented local women, all of whom have been performing together since 1983.

Visitors from Columbus-A group from the OSU Affirmative Action Office in Columbus will be visiting campus on Friday. They are interested in meeting students, representatives from the Senate and campus Women's group members. Anyone else who is interested should see Carole Enneking (GA 015C) prior to Nov. 14th.

OSU vs Michigan Weekend-Next weekend the OSU Buckeyes meet their arch rival University of Michigan. In support of the Buckeyes, the Lima Lazarus store will sponsor several special events. The game will be broadcasted over the store P.A. system, large screen TV's will be available in the restaurant, and much more. Students, faculty, staff from the Lima Campus, and the general public, are invited to watch the game at Lazarus.

Intramurals-Here are the results of two Intramural events:

Tennis-Women's Division

1st-Kathy Ward

2nd-Chris Flora

3rd-Susan Kreher

Punt, Pass, and Kick

1st-Jack Link

2nd-Matt Childers

Congratulations to these winners and all who participated!
