NOTES OF INTEREST

Hit Film On Campus-Beverly Hills Cop will be shown on Monday, Nov. 25 from 2-4:00pm in room 160 of the Student Activities Building. Since this is a new release, there is a $.50 charge at the door. Where else do you find such a bargain? The showing is sponsored by the Student Senate Programming Committee.

Beverly Hills Cop stars Eddie Murphy, Judge Reinhold and Lisa Erlbacher. Murphy plays a brash, street-smart Detroit cop pounding the gilded pavement of Beverly Hills in search of his best friend's killer. The film is an entertaining blend of wild comedy, high energy action, and nail biting suspense.

Run for The Turkey-This is the week for the fourth annual Thanksgiving Turkey Run. The race will be held on Tuesday beginning at 12:15pm. The course is two miles in length. Door prizes are always available. Get some exercise and run for a prize. More information and sign-up sheets are available from the athletic's office (Cook 105).

Women's Group sponsors evening program-Women Among Us will hold their evening program on Tuesday beginning at 7:30pm, in the Cafeteria. The topic for discussion is HOLIDAY STRESS with the featured speaker being Jo Smucker from the Northwest Center for Human Resources. November and December can be quite stressful and this program should provide many helpful hints.

How We Got the Bible-Campus Ministry is sponsoring a film strip/discussion series discussing the origin of the Bible. The series continues Wednesday, Nov. 27 and Dec. 4 at 2:00pm in GA 134. These informal programs are open to anyone who is interested in learning more about the bible as a manuscript!

Fall Theatre production-The Lima Campus Theatre Department will present Antigone December 5-7, 1985. This particular play is a modern version of Antigone by Jean Anouilh. The award winning drama uses the classical Greek myth as a background for contemporary political conflict. A lot of time, effort and sweat has been put into this production, be sure not to miss it.

Local Theatre plans musical-Lima's own Encore Theatre will present GODSPELL November 22- Dec. 7, 1985. Godspell is a modern upbeat version of the Gospel According to St. Mathew set to music. A lot of local talent is involved, and Encore always presents a fine performance. Ticket prices are 7.00 Friday and Saturday, $6.00 Thurs. and Sun. and $4.00 for students at any time. Dates remaining include Nov. 29, 30, Dec. 1, 5, 6, 7.

Athletics-The Baron Men's Basketball team is off to a great start with a current 3-0 record. The Barons beat Bluffton College JV 69-57, Ancilla College 93-82 and Clark Tech 87-40. Be sure to support the team with your presence. Students enter all games for free.

Lady Barons start their season on Sat. Nov. 30 against Edison State College. This is a home game beginning at 2:00pm.
