NOTES OF INTEREST

Regional Campuses to Hold Euchre Tournament-Which campus has the best euchre players? The top 4 winning teams for our local tournament will challenge winners from Newark, Marion, and Mansfield. The tournament will feature 4-handed turn-up euchre. Local competition will begin on Wed. Jan 22. Sign-up ends Tues. Jan 21.

Marketing Business Club to meet-all marketing and management students are invited to the first meeting of winter quarter. Mike Hildlebian, Lima Memorial's Marketing Director, will be the speaker. The program will be held on Thursday at 12:00 in Galvin Hall room 118.

Atari Club-Attention all Atari computer owners, the opportunity to share information and learn new techniques will once again exist. The campus Atari club offers public access programs, plus the expertise of a few of the campus' Atari programmers. If interested, be sure to see Prof. Mike Wurst in Cook Hall .

Game Room Tournaments-The scheduled Couple's (mixed doubles) Pool Tournament will be postponed until Feb. 10 to facilitate the regional campus euchre tournament.

Student Senate Needs OSU Members-Applications are still being accepted to fill two openings on the Student Senate. Openings exist on the Community Service (local/charitable projects) Committee and Campus Programming Committee. Application and signed-petition from candidates are due by Jan 24. See Carole Enneking in GA 015C or Todd Long, Senate President, for materials.

Intramurals and athletics-The Bowling league begins this week, don't forget to meet at McReo's. Intramural 5 on 5 basketball will also start this week. Games are scheduled for Tuesdays and Thursdays at 12:15pm. Basketball Teams-both the Men's and Women's Basketball teams need campus support. Two important games are scheduled for this week. Show some spirit and attend the games. Remember, no entry fee with student I.D.!

Winterlight-Is the winter weather getting you down and depressed? This time of year is usually a good time to do some introspection (Who I am, where do I fit, what's happening around me). Campus Ministry wishes to support a quiet time for thinking and discussing, by sponsoring a one day Retreat. Get away from the hassles and confusion for one day of fellowship and thinking. The date and time chosen, Saturday, Feb 15 from 9am-3:00pm. For the low cost of $1.00 per person, participants are provided: breakfast and lunch and hours of directed activity. Registration forms will be available from Campus Ministers (M-R, 12-2pm, GA 134), Activities Office (GA 015C) and on various bulletin boards. Deadline for sign-up is Feb 11, 1986.

Area Happenings-Encore Theatre's See How They Run (a hilarious farce) will continue through Feb 1. Friday, Saturday, and Sunday evening performances are available.

Kings Productions-(King's Island, Kings Dominion, Great America)
Auditions to be held Jan 23 at OSU-Hughes Hall Auditorium 6-8pm. Wanted: Singers, dancers, and instrumentalists.

Noon Series-A Reasonable Facsimile, a husband and wife duo from Michigan will perform in Cook Hall Lobby on Thursday. Featured music will be street and popular music from the renaissance. A wide variety of instruments will be used. This is something different, so bring lunch to Cook Lobby between 12-12:45 and check this out.
