NOTES OF INTEREST

LTC Open House Planned-Attention all interested engineering students! If you or someone you know is thinking of engineering as a career field be sure to attend the LTC Open House on Wed., Feb. 19th 6:30-8:30 in TEL.

Bake Sale-The Respiratory Care Students will tempt you with goodies on Monday in Cook and Galvin Hall Lobbies from 10am-12:00.

Lucky Winners-The winners in L'Esprit francais fund-raiser were:

- 1st place-Gigi Anna (Columbus)
- 2nd place-Brian Schimmoeller (Fort Jennings)

Folk Musicians to entertain Thursday-Dave and Kay Gordon, Dayton musicians, will entertain the crowds on Thursday from 12-12:45 in SAB 160. This talented duo performs mountain ballads, folk songs and some crazy original tunes on mountain instruments.

Experienced Poolshooter to Appear Thursday-Jack White, professional billiards player for over 25 years, will show his talent on Thursday. Two shows, 9:30-10:30 and 1:00-2:00pm, in the Game Room will feature trick shoots and generally "perfect" pool playing. Audience participation is needed-(we should have some takers). The man claims to be great-you be the judge. Admission is free, but get there early for a good seat.

Marketing/Management Club-A meeting will be held on Thursday Feb. 20th at 12:00pm in GA 118. Speaker will be Keith W. Dillbone, Marketing manager from Afford-a-call. A question and answer period will follow the lecture.

Sports:

Men's Basketball-1st round of State Championship was held this past weekend. Ask a B-ball player how they did. Season Record up to tournament 17-9.

Women's Basketball-Also had 1st round of State Championship! Season Record: 9-10 as of 2-12-86.

HORSE Basketball-entry deadline Feb. 26th.

Vocal Recital Planned-Helen Swank, mezzo-soprano will present a recital on Sunday, Feb. 23rd at 3:00pm. The recital will be held in the Auditorium, and is free and open to the public.

Exhibit featuring Sculpture-Feb. 23-March 6. Judy Greavu, ONU lecturer in Art, will display 15 pieces in SAB 160. The show will include 5 full size works (3-5 feet in height) and 10 small ceramic models; in addition enlarged photos of other pieces will be on display. An opening reception is planned, following Sunday's Recital, from 2-5pm. Viewing hours during the week will be posted (normally 11am-1pm). Check the exhibit room doors for more information.
