NOTES OF INTEREST

Special guest on campus-Women Among Us will host a program by and reception for Dagmar Celeste on Tuesday at 1:30pm. Mrs. Celeste will say a few remarks and wishes to meet students and faculty. The program will be held in SAB 160, and all are invited.

Peace Lecture-Mary Ann Sullivan, professor of English and Art History at Bluffton College, will present The Visual Arts Look at War Issues, on Wednesday evening at 8:00pm in the Auditorium. Mrs. Sullivan has done extensive research on society's attitude toward war over history. The program will last approximately an hour and will include slides. Admission is free and open to the public.

Thursday Noon-Brass Roots, a local brass quintet, will perform on Thursday, May 15 from 12-1pm. The quintet will perform a classical program in SAB 160.

Trip to King's Island-Student Senate Programming Committee is sponsoring a trip to King's Island on May 17th. That date is one of the Ohio College Days so discount coupons are available which will bring the ticket cost to $10.55. Pick up your coupon in the activities Office, car pools are forming if interested leave your name in the office (GA 015).

Finals Run-get ready for the final fun run on Monday, May 19th. Prizes will be awarded, details are available in the Athletics Office (Cook 105).

Hunger Awareness Week-Operation Feed Kick Off Event will be a dance this Friday from 9pm-1am in the Galvin Commons. Admission charge is a food donation (canned good, or dried foods)! Refreshments will also be available for sale (pop and beer). Dance music to be provided by WOSL radio. All proceeds will go to Operation Feed. Support a great dance.

Next Week will be Operation Feed, an annual food drive. Please help those in need by bringing canned or dried food for donation to the Salvation Army Food Drive. Drop off boxes will be located in each building lobby. Also look out for information about special projects/events leading up to Hands Across America on May 25.

Sports-Men's and Women's Tennis finished 2nd ORCC. Denise Caldwell placed first in Single's Tennis-Women's division.

Baron Golfers placed 2nd ORCC also.
Congratulations to all Baron athletes.

Industrial league tournaments begin this week. All are invited to watch the area teams compete.

Take me Out to the Ball Game-On Friday, May 30, 1986 Lima Campus students will be traveling to Cincinnati to watch the Reds take on the St. Louis Cardinals. Cost for the event is $13.00 for Baron Varsity Club members, $18.00 for non-members. This includes transportation, Reserved Yellow seats for the game, and beverages to and from the game. The group will leave the Lima Campus at 4:00pm. Contact John Stroia in Athletics Office for details.
