OHIO STATE LAW JOURNAL
Volume 47, Number 3, 1986

CONTENTS

Articles
Lawyering for the Government: Politics, Polemics & Principle
   Rex E. Lee ................................................................. 595
First Amendment Constraints on the Award of Attorney’s Fees Against Civil Rights Defendant-Intervenors: The Dilemma of the Innocent Volunteer
   David Goldberger .................................................. 603
A Case Study in Income Tax Complexity: The Type A Reorganization
   Daniel Q. Posin .................................................. 627
Toward a Theory of Strict “Claim” Liability: Warranty Relief for Advertising Representations
   Wayne K. Lewis .................................................. 671
Putting Your J.D. to Work: Advice for Students Seeking Law Firm Employment
   Arthur F. Greenbaum ............................................ 697

Commentary
Benno Schmidt vs. Rehnquist and Scalia
   Raoul Berger .................................................. 709

Case Comments
Northwest Wholesale: Group Boycott Analysis and a Role for Procedural Safeguards in Industrial Self-Regulation .................................................. 729

Notes
The Federal Income Tax Consequences of the Legal Obligation of Parents to Support Children .................................................. 753
The Implications of Changing the Current Law on Charitable Deductions—Maintaining Incentives for Donating Art to Museums ........................ 773