OHIO STATE LAW JOURNAL

Volume 58, Number 3, 1997

CONTENTS

Articles

Mark A. Graber ................................................................. 731

Analogizing Race and Sex in Workplace Harassment Claims
L. Camille Hébert ............................................................ 819

Questioning the Question-Proof Inmate: Defining Miranda Custody for Incarcerated Suspects
Laurie Magid ........................................................................ 883

Re-making Distinctions on the Basis of Sex: Must Gay Women Be Admitted to the Military Even If Gay Men Are Not?
Diane H. Mazur ..................................................................... 953

“Let’s Call It a Draw”: Striker Replacements and the Mackay Doctrine
Leonard Bierman
Rafael Gely ........................................................................ 1003

Comments

Sympathy for the Devil: How the Ohio Tort Reform Act Creates a Flawed System of Punitive Damages
Brett McComb Wall ............................................................ 1023

Justin Schwartz ................................................................. 1055

Case Comment

The Cleveland Scholarship and Tutoring Program: Why Voucher Programs Do Not Violate the Establishment Clause
Margaret A. Nero ............................................................... 1103