Congratulations

Morag Boyd has been selected to attend the Leading Change Institute May 31-June 5. Since the inception of the Institute, key higher education issues reviewed by the program have included new sources of competition, use of technology to support effective teaching and learning, distance learning, changing modes of scholarly communications, an increasing focus on students and, fundamentally, a transformation in the qualities necessary for leadership in today's increasingly ambiguous and rapidly changing environment. These issues continue to frame the complex landscape of higher education and to inform the Leading Change Institute's scope. Together with the deans and other thought leaders from the community, fellows in the Institute contemplate the current and future impact of these issues in the higher education community. They discuss numerous approaches to addressing these issues, including ideas for collaboration, collective creativity, and innovation within and across departments, institutions, and local or regional boundaries; the conceptualization of blended positions and organizations; and the importance of community mentorship and advocacy. Speakers from a wide range of backgrounds share real-life problems across the higher education landscape for which, over the course of the Institute, participants are challenged to devise and propose solutions.

You are invited to a Wellness Strolls, February 19 and 24 at noon

From Patti Dittoe, OSUL Buckeye Wellness Innovator

The stroll will begin just inside the Oval Entrance of Thompson Library. We can walk in the Oval and/or around the Oval, or we can walk inside Thompson Library as weather permits. Times of this stroll will vary between 10, 20 and 30 minutes. All are welcome. Leisure walks are my yoga; perhaps it can be yours too.

Don't forget about the walking and/or the stair climbing potential inside your respective buildings. It can be a great way to fight back against the cold weather!

Jobs

Engineering Librarian

The Engineering Librarian has primary responsibility for providing user-centered services in support of research, scholarship, and teaching for the College of Engineering, excluding the Knowlton School of Architecture. The librarian approaches delivery of services with creativity and innovation to align with the Libraries' Strategic Plan and to operate within the Engaged Librarian Framework. Hallmarks of success will include building strong partnerships, deepening engagement, contributing to collection strategies and management, and leveraging technology to collaborate with the world class and renowned faculties of the College of Engineering.

As a member of the 18th Avenue Library team, the Engineering Librarian will collaborate with a cohort of science and data librarians to advance existing services, to envision and articulate new services, and to develop new pathways to strengthen partnerships in the future. Emphasis will be placed on supporting the research life cycle, establishing information literacy partnerships, building and managing library collections, and working collaboratively with colleagues from across the Libraries to support the University's Discovery Themes (Energy and Environment, Food Production and Security, Health and Wellness).

Responsibilities:

Liaison

- Actively engage and communicate effectively with faculty, students, and staff in assigned areas, developing strong working relationships.
- Be knowledgeable and able to speak about a range of library issues, including scholarly communication, digital initiatives, the development of new online tools, copyright, data management, and the integration of information literacy skills into the curriculum.
- With support from the Libraries' Assessment Coordinator, assess user needs to develop and maintain relevant, high-quality services and collections.
- Analyze trends in departmental teaching and research programs, stay abreast of scholarship in the disciplines themselves, and use this knowledge to anticipate users' needs.
- Champion the library as an intellectual meeting place for programming, content, and inquiry.

Research Services

- Analyze and understand users' research and information needs to develop, refine, assess, and sustain research and information services and programs in all formats.
- Actively seek opportunities to foster interdisciplinary collaborations in the provision of research and information services across the campus.
- Provide research consultations for students and faculty members in engineering and, as appropriate, with students and faculty aligned with the University's Discovery Themes.
- Continuously evaluate and assess research and information-related services.

Teaching and Learning

- Actively engage with faculty and graduate teaching assistants as partners in programmatically integrating information literacy concepts and skills into the curriculum.
- Collaborate in the design, implementation, and maintenance of online tools and services that meet the needs of discipline/interdisciplinary research communities.
- Understand and apply basic principles of instructional and assignment design, develop effective instructional materials and sessions in a variety of formats and provide alternative learning opportunities.
- Engage in reflective teaching through the use of instructional improvement tools available from the Libraries' Teaching & Learning Department and the university.

Scholarly Communication

- Understand the scholarly communication process, publishing models, and emerging trends in assigned disciplines.
- Understand and explain the principles behind open access publishing, institutional repositories, and authors' rights.
- Promote Ohio State University Libraries publishing partnership options.

Collection Development and Management

- Strategically select material in all formats to serve the current and future research, teaching, and learning needs in assigned subject areas.
- Build on collections of distinction that may also serve regional, national and international users.
- Work effectively with colleagues to enhance acquisition, access, discovery, and use of library collections.

Required Qualifications:

- An ALA-accredited MLS or MLIS degree.

Preferred Qualifications:

- An advanced degree in a discipline related to the liaison areas.
- Experience working with engineers in an academic or research environment.
- Knowledge of the organization of information and scholarship in engineering disciplines.
- Demonstrated teaching experience.
- Ability to conduct environmental scans and reviews of faculty and student research needs.

About OSU Libraries: A Driving Force for Change

The Ohio State University Libraries is a highly valued partner and campus leader in advancing discovery and learning for OSU, for the state of Ohio and for an ever expanding community of world scholars. Aligned with the University's vision to be the world's preeminent public comprehensive university, the Libraries advance student and faculty success by delivering distinctive content and fostering intellectual connections.

A world-class public research and comprehensive teaching university such as OSU demands a top research library and OSU Libraries is rising to eminence along with the rest of the University. The Libraries, a leader among peers, is currently ranked in the top 10 among the public university members of the Association of Research Libraries, a reflection of the investment of the University. This ranking also places OSU Libraries within the top 20 of 126 ARL member libraries. The OSU Libraries is an essential charter member of OhioLINK, a consortium of 88 Ohio academic libraries and the State Library of Ohio and shares resources through that organization. The Libraries also enhances collections and services by participation in the CIC, the academic consortium of Big Ten institutions.

With this support and these partnerships, the OSU Libraries has turned its attention to rapid innovation to address the challenges of the evolving academic environment. Major renovation projects continue to enhance our spaces for collaborative and dynamic teaching, learning and research. An ambitious talent management plan is bringing new skills and reframing long held strengths. Increased investment in a wide variety of digital initiatives aims to revolutionize discovery and access anytime, anywhere to our vast and distinctive resources. Our impact reaches beyond our campus and extends the land-grant mission internationally. To learn more about the strategic plan under current implementation, visit: https://go.osu.edu/libraries\_strategic\_plan. ## Japanese Studies Librarian

The Ohio State University Libraries invites applications and nominations for the position of Japanese Studies Librarian to join a substantial, responsive and high impact area studies program which strongly supports research and teaching at the University. The Japanese Studies collection is relevant and distinctive, reflecting the prominence of the University's East Asian Studies Center, the Institute for Japanese Studies and the Department of East Asian Languages and Literatures (DEALL). The Japanese Studies Librarian is a critical partner for these dynamic programs and leads the Libraries' engagement and collection building in these areas to advance discovery and learning in a globalized, information-rich environment. The Japanese Studies Librarian is responsible for outreach activities, collection development, and research services that cultivate relationships and enhance teaching, learning, and research in the East Asian Studies Center, the Institute for Japanese Studies and DEALL. The Japanese Studies Librarian also builds partnerships to participate in shared practices that connect the Libraries' learning environment, expertise, resources, and services with constituent needs.

Responsibilities:

- Actively engages and communicates effectively with faculty, students, and staff in assigned areas, developing strong working relationships and serving as liaison to the East Asian Studies Center (a pioneering U.S. Department of Education National Resource Center), to the Institute for Japanese Studies, to faculty in DEALL and to a variety of other programs with interest in Japanese Studies.
- Engages with faculty, students and other scholars to provide proactive Japanese Studies research support and innovative instruction in collaboration with the Libraries' Teaching and Learning, Research Services and Digital Content Services departments.
- Builds and manages a distinctive, interdisciplinary, responsive research collection in Japanese and related East Asian areas in support of distinguished academic and teaching programs and promotes current services and collections. Assesses user needs to develop and maintain relevant, high-quality services and collections.
- Be knowledgeable about and be able speak to a range of library issues, including scholarly communication, copyright issues, digital initiatives, the development of new online tools, and the integration of information literacy skills into the curriculum.
- Analyzes trends in East Asian Studies Center, the Institute for Japanese Studies and DEALL teaching and research programs, stay abreast of scholarship in the disciplines themselves, and use this knowledge to respond to departmental needs.
- Actively develops regional, national and international partnerships and collaborations to advance the strategic directions of the Libraries, representing OSU in forums such as the Council on East Asian Libraries (CEAL) and the North American Coordinating Council on Japanese Library Resources (NCC).
- Supports and engages in fundraising, grant writing, marketing and outreach that strengthen the Libraries' programs, in partnership with Advancement, the East Asian Studies Center and DEALL.
- Provides direct supervision of the East Asian Studies Program Assistant. In consultation with the Head of Area Studies and the Associate Director for Special Collections and Area Studies writes position descriptions, hires, assigns job responsibilities, coaches and mentors, conducts performance evaluations, and facilitates staff development and training opportunities.

- Participates proactively on library-wide committees, task forces and teams. Seeks opportunities to engage with local community organizations to promote Japanese collections.
- Collaborates with other subject, area studies and special collections librarians to develop interdisciplinary solutions to integrating distinctive intellectual content and services into the academic environment.
- Contributes to developments in the field of area studies librarianship through active professional engagement and research, presenting and publishing in appropriate venues.

Required qualifications:

- Accredited MLS or a PhD obtained by time of appointment required.
- Solid command of the history and major trends in research and scholarly publishing in East Asian Studies, especially Japanese Studies and the history of Japan, including digital resources, and with vendors able to supply appropriate materials from a variety of sources
- Excellent language skills in Japanese
- Excellent communication skills in English

Preferred qualifications:

- Experience as a Japanese or East Asian Studies librarian, or a comparable combination of academic and professional experience
- Demonstrated ability to work effectively and creatively in a collaborative and complex environment
- Evidence of both professional initiative and flexibility
- Demonstrated ability to work effectively and collegially with a diverse population
- Experience in developing and delivering innovative instruction and research support services
- Experience in using bibliographic utilities and databases to search non-Roman scripts
- Ability to identify and work with materials in other languages relevant to East Asian Studies, such as Korean or Chinese.

About the OSU Libraries Area Studies Program:

The OSU Libraries has built strong and deep area studies collections in association with the programs of OSU's distinguished Title VI Area Studies Centers and related departments of language, literature and culture. As Ohio State aspires to be a globalized academic institution committed to responsible international engagement and its Office of International Affairs aims to "foster excellence in the study of languages, the history of arts and cultures and their societies, and international security," Area Studies librarians partner to advance knowledge building in today's dynamic and diverse global information environment.

Rank/Salary:

The position is a full-time, permanent, 12-month tenure-track faculty appointment and reports to the Head of Area Studies. Salary and faculty rank are dependent on qualifications and experience.
