Yea, Dads! — Welcome, Iowa! Hello, Alumni!

THE game today is more than a simple meeting of Ohio State and Iowa on the Stadium gridiron; it is a real occasion.

It is not only the fifth game between Ohio and Iowa in as many years, but it inaugurates the home team's 1926 Western Conference campaign; it marks the celebration of the annual "Dads' Day;" it is also set aside for Ohio State's observance of "Walter Camp Day," and among the thousands in attendance are several hundred alumni leaders who met this morning for their biennial conference with President Rightmire and other University heads.

Ohio State is particularly glad to welcome Iowa back. It knows Iowa to be a fine foe. It hopes that the relationship will be continued. The present invasion of the Stadium by Iowa is the fourth in the space of five years, and on each occasion the visitors have made a fine impression.

"Dad," individually and collectively, knows he is welcome. The air of the entire campus breathes that spirit today, and not today only, but every day. We wish "Dad" and Mother and the girls, too, could visit us oftener. They keep us in touch with home and we should like to feel that their occasional trips to the campus, particularly on such occasions as this, help to keep them as young as we are.

What is true of the home folks is also true of the alumni, for they are, in a very real sense, the University's own kith and kin. The campus is theirs, of course, as it always has been. We recognize them as older brothers and voice the wish that they, too, might come oftener and stay longer. For the University likes to keep in touch with those who have passed beyond its portals, and it is well worth their while to maintain that relationship, mellowed and hallowed by the years.

Walter Camp, His Day

OHIO STATE always associates Walter Camp with one of its golden football days. He paid the campus but one visit, but that, fortunately, came on that dramatic Saturday afternoon in the spectacular season of 1920, when Ohio State, by two daring forward passes, snatched a 13 to 7 victory from a powerful Wisconsin team when defeat apparently was certain.

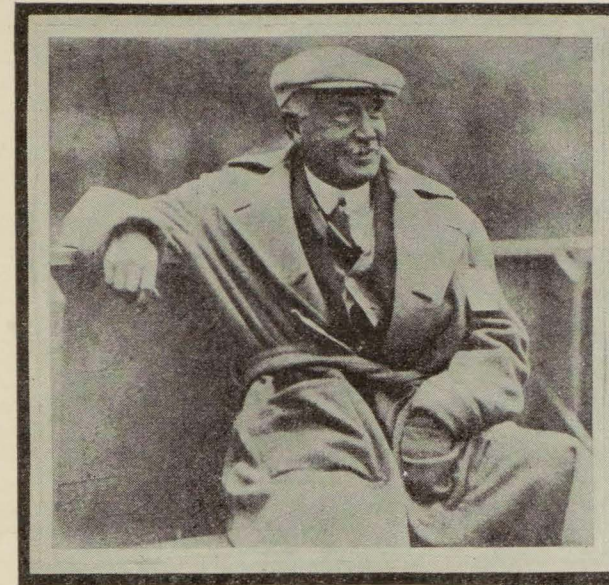

Along with the rest of the country, Ohio State pays tribute to Walter Camp for what he was and what he did and for the inspiration he left. How strong his hold still upon the followers of football is evident from the fact that nearly $3000 has been contributed here voluntarily toward Ohio State's quota for the memorial to be erected to him at Yale.

It is worth recounting some of the contributions he made to football. A four-sport athlete at Yale, he played for that university in the first college Rugby game in America, just 50 years ago. Before he was 20 years of age, he devised the "eleven," the safety as a scoring play, the scrimmage and the quarterback, and injected numerous other changes into the methods of play. It was he who was primarily responsible for the creation of the rules committee, and for many years thereafter contributed to the improvement of the rules.

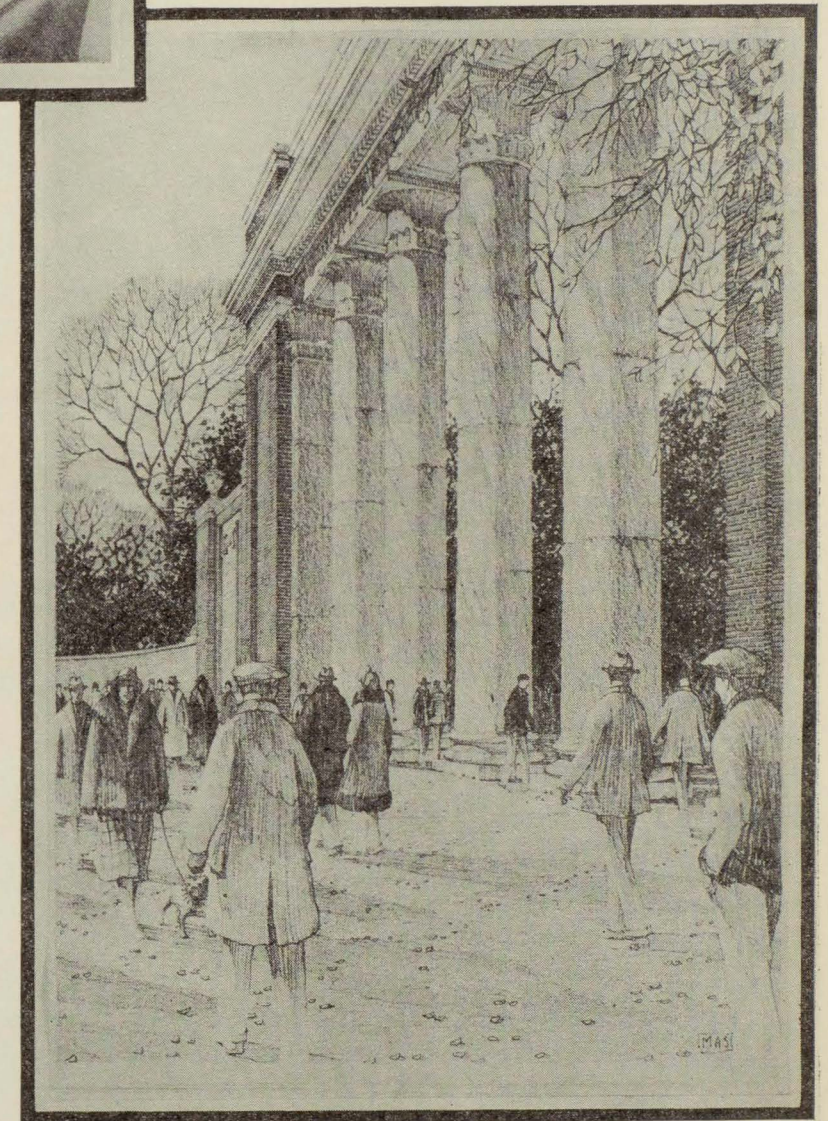

But his interests were far wider than football, much as he was identified with that game. He was for many years the moving spirit of all Yale athletics, he was a pioneer in the municipal playgrounds idea and in the campaign to improve the health of workers. During the war he was in charge of physical development in all of the navy's training camps and for the air service. His greatest ambition was to help "make the nation fit."

Walter Camp exemplified true sportsmanship as perhaps few other Americans have. His point of view has been best described in the sportsman's code as one who—

"Plays the game for his side;
Keeps to the rules;
Keeps a stout heart in defeat;
Keeps faith with his comrades;
Keeps himself fit;
Keeps his temper;
Keeps modest in victory;
Keeps a sound soul, a clean mind and a healthy body."

STATE OF OHIO EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT COLUMBUS

To the team from the state "where the tall corn grows" we Buckeyes extend hearty greetings.

Ohio is justly proud of the ability and fighting qualities exhibited by Ohio State boys this season and we enter our first Western Conference battle confident of victory.

If our players share that confidence and yet do not minimize the task before them, they cannot fail.

We urge them to exert their noblest efforts but, if the game is well played, both the victor and vanquished will merit equal praise from the people of our State.

H.C. Denney
Governor.

The Ohio Stadium

APPROXIMATELY $70,000 has been expended since last fall to make the Ohio Stadium still more perfect in its arrangements and conveniences for spectators and athletes alike. The Stadium, as it stands, represents a total investment of approximately $1,800,000, exclusive of the value of the site.

Improvements since last year include the installation of a new drainage system for the playing field, the regrading and resodding of the field for better playing conditions, the repainting of the miles of seats, installation of additional equipment in the training quarters, and permanent provision for heating, shower and electrical facilities in the Stadium.

Salient facts about the Stadium include:

Seats in lower deck, 42,000. Seats in upper deck, 21,000. Box seats, 3,100. Closest seats are 72 feet from the sidelines and the farthest seats only 231 feet.

Circumference, end to end, one-third mile.
Ground area, 10 acres.

Height of wall, 98 feet, 3 inches.
Length of structure, 754 feet. Width, 597 feet.

Built of concrete and steel.

The audience enters through 81 entrances and is handled by 12 ramps feeding 112 aisles.

It requires an operating force of more than 1,000 ushers, ticket takers, police, Boy Scouts and employes to handle a capacity crowd.

Advantages of the Ohio Stadium plan, the only one of its kind in the country, are (1) that the upper deck brings seats closer to the playing field; (2) that the open end improves ventilation; and (3) that the curved sides equalize seat values.

Architectural features include:

(1) Eighty-seven concrete and steel arches, each 13 feet wide and 56 feet high.

(2) Towers are the open end and main entrance, 109 feet high and 36 feet square.

(3) A half "doze" 86½ feet high and 70 feet in diameter.

The Last Few Yards!

Most great football teams have had ONE MAN—"the old standby"—for
THE LAST FEW YARDS

In Central Ohio, one newspaper, THE DISPATCH, gets those "last yards" for SPORTS READERS. Truly, it is their "old standby"

And why not?—with such All-American stars in the line-up as:

KNUTE ROCKNE TAD JONES GLENN WARNER
WALTER ECKERSALL SOL METZGER DAVIS WALSH

teamed with the Dispatch's own splendid local staff of sports writers.

By the same token of merit, merchants with a message to put across the goal call THE DISPATCH signal to "carry the ball" in their advertising.

CHANGES IN FOOTBALL RULES

PLAYING BOUNDARIES

The ball becomes dead automatically, no further play being permitted, whenever it crosses the side line, the side line extended or the end line.

INCOMPLETE PASSES

Besides the loss of a down, a penalty of five yards is imposed this season in each instance where a team makes more than one incomplete forward pass during the same series of four downs.

SAFETY

Following a safety, the team scoring through this medium will now put the ball in play by a kick from its own 20-yard line.

CRAWLING

This term has been more clearly defined and is now interpreted as "an attempt by the runner to advance the ball after he has been downed; viz., when any portion of his person except his hands or feet touches the ground while he is in the grasp of an opponent."

PILING UP

This rule has also been clarified and now reads: "There shall be no piling up on a player after the Referee has declared the ball dead or after the player in possession of the ball has been downed and is in the grasp of an opponent."

ROUGHNESS

Rules applying to unnecessary roughness have been amplified for 1926 and so strengthened that there will be no excuse for this practice during the present season.

TAKING A CHANCE IS TOO EXPENSIVE!

You wouldn't think for a minute of driving your car at sixty-five miles an hour along a street aglare with ice. The risk—the cost if there were an accident—would be to great.

But accidents do not always occur when you are taking the greatest chances. You may be driving with good judgment and taking every precaution to avoid crashing with another automobile—yet the unexpected may occur.

That is why reasoning drivers protect themselves at all times against expense or the loss of their automobiles through fire, theft or collision.

The wisest driver sees the unexpected and unavoidable in the future and protects himself with

BEAT IOWA

ACROSS THE FIELD

Words and Music by
W. A. Dougherty, Jr., '17
Fight that team across the field,
Show them Ohio's here.
Set the earth reverberating with a mighty cheer.
Hit them hard and see how they fall;
Never let the team get the ball
Hail! Hail! the gang's all here,
So let's beat that Iowa now.
Oh, Ohio! Oh, Ohio! Wa-hoo! Wa-hoo!
for Ohio.

IOWA

OLD GOLD

O, Iowa, calm and secure on thy hill,
Looking down on the river below,
With a dignity born of the dominant will
Of the men that have lived long ago;
O, heir of the glory of pioneers days,
Let thy spirit be proud as of old,
For thou shalt find blessing and honor and praise
In the daughters and sons of Old Gold.

We shall sing and be glad with the days
as they fly
In the time that we spend in thy halls,
And in sadness we'll part when the days have gone by
And our path turns away from thy walls.
Till the waters no more in thy river shall run,
Till the stars in the heavens grow cold,
We shall sing of the glory and fame thou hast won.
And the love that we bear for Old Gold.

ON IOWA

On Iowa, proudly at the fore,
On, Iowa, on for evermore,
Every loyal son will give a rousing toast
to you,
Every loyal daughter loves you true,
On, Iowa, with your wealth untold,
A heritage to us you did unfold,
Love of family, love of friend, and love of country, too,
Makes us proud for what you stand,
Our dear Old Gold.

WHO, WAH, WAH

Who, Wah, Wah; Who, Wah, Wah;
Iowa, Iowa;
Who, Wah, Wah.

CARMEN OHIO

Words and Music by
Fred Cornell, ex-'06
(Hats off, standing)

O, come, let's sing Ohio's praise
And songs to Alma Mater raise;
While our hearts rebounding thrill
With joy that death alone can still.
Summer's heat or winter's cold,
The seasons pass, the years will roll;
Time and change will truly show
How firm thy friendship—Ohio.

These jolly days of priceless worth
By far the gladdest days on earth,
Soon will pass and we not know
How dearly we love Ohio.
We should strive to keep thy name
Of fair repute and spotless fame;
So in college halls we'll grow
And love thee better—Ohio.
Alumni Chorus
Tho, age may dim our mem'ry's store,
We'll think of happy days of yore,
True to friend and frank to foe,
As sturdy sons and O-hi-o.
If on seas of care we roll,
'Neath blackened sky, o'er barren shoal,
Thots of thee bid darkness go,
Dear Alma Mater—O-hi-o.
(All in on last Ohio.)

THE BUCKEYE BATTLE CRY

Words and Music by
Frank Crumit
In old Ohio there's a team,
That's known thruout the land;
Eleven warriors, brave and bold,
Whose fame will ever stand,
And when the ball goes over,
Our cheers will reach the sky,
Ohio Feld will hear again
The Buckeye Battle Cry.
Drive! Drive on down the field,
Men of the scarlet and gray;
Don't let them thru that line,
We have to win this game today,
Come on, Ohio! Smash thru to victory,
We cheer you as we go;
Our honor defend
So we'll fight to the end
For Ohio.

YOUR Printing Represents YOU Just as Much as Your Salesman Does

"Use Printing's Vast Power"

It's Yours to Command at

A Job Department, Too!
This Department Is a Good
Sized Printing Plant in Itself

THE latest automatic machinery assures you of economy in production, uniformly good work and quick deliveries. Every order, regardless of how small, is scheduled, and the schedule maintained as rigidly as upon the largest catalogue order in the house.

It is our ambition to make this department a real help to you—to have you depend upon it. If it simplifies your printing buying—if there is some satisfaction in knowing it is necessary to have but one printer understand your individual needs for both large and small work—it will have answered its purpose. Prompt deliveries—economical production—good work.
