SYMPOSIUM

THE WARREN COURT CRIMINAL JUSTICE REVOLUTION:
REFLECTIONS A GENERATION LATER

Through a Glass Darkly:
Seeing the Real Warren Court Criminal Justice Legacy
George C. Thomas III ........................................................................................................ 1

How Earl Warren's Twenty-Two Years in Law Enforcement
Affected His Work as Chief Justice
Yale Kamisar .................................................................................................................... 11

A Liberal House Divided:
How the Warren Court Dismantled the Fourth Amendment
Morgan Cloud .................................................................................................................... 33

The Warren Court's Missed Opportunities in Substantive Criminal Law
Richard S. Frase .................................................................................................................. 75

Everything Old Is New Again:
Fundamental Fairness and the Legitimacy of Criminal Justice
Tracey L. Meares .............................................................................................................. 105

Justice Harlan on Criminal Procedure:
Two Cheers for the Legal Process School
Donald A. Dripps ............................................................................................................. 125

The Criminal Procedure Road Not Taken:
Due Process and the Protection of Innocence
George C. Thomas III ....................................................................................................... 169
COMMENTARIES

Report from the Certiorari Clinic: Impressions of Routine Capital Cases
Daniel Givelber ................................................................. 201

Confrontation Stories: Raleigh on the Mayflower
Kenneth Graham ................................................................. 209

An Empirical Study of Public Defender Effectiveness:
Self-Selection by the “Marginally Indigent”
Morris B. Hoffman, Paul H. Rubin & Joanna M. Shepherd .......... 223

Lessons from Down Under: A Dialogue on Police Search and Seizure in New Zealand and the United States
Scott Optican ........................................................................ 257

Mercy, Clemency, and Capital Punishment: Two Accounts
Austin Sarat ........................................................................ 273

REVIEWS

A Liberal Theory of Excuses
Douglas Husak ....................................................................... 287

“Murder and the Reasonable Man” Revisited:
A Response to Victoria Nourse
Cynthia Lee ........................................................................... 301

LETTERS TO THE JOURNAL

Gary L. Stuart and Response by George C. Thomas III ................. 307