Tuition Assistance Seminar: November 4

Whether completing courses for interest or working towards a degree, eligible employees can take advantage of their education benefits. Join Admission Counselor Lauren Mungin for "Thriving in Education through Ohio State Tuition Assistance" on November 4 in Enarson 311 to understand the steps of becoming a student. Costs, deadlines, courses and the Tuition Assistance program for staff and dependents will be discussed in this interactive presentation. Two sessions are available.

Register for 4-5 p.m. at <https://carmen-services.it.ohio-state.edu/Events/Event/Details/641> or 5:30-6:30 p.m. at <https://carmen-services.it.ohio-state.edu/Events/Event/Details/642>.

Contact Lauren at mungin.5@osu.edu for more information.

Changes to OSUL Website Copyright Information and Licensing: Faculty Action Needed

The old terms of use and permissions request pages have been retired and are replaced by the new Copyright Information page. The new page clarifies the roles and responsibilities of OSUL and library patrons in regards to the use of copyrighted materials appearing on the Libraries' website. The new page also provides information on the Creative Commons licensing of select OSUL web content.

Content on the Libraries' website for which OSUL owns the copyright (or has permission to sublicense) will be licensed under a Creative Commons Attribution (CC BY) license. The CC BY license enables others to share, reuse, and remix OSUL content so long as they credit The Ohio State University Libraries as the source of the original material and they indicate if changes have been made.

What does the license apply to?

The Creative Commons license will apply to materials for which the Libraries own the copyright (or has permission to sublicense). This includes:

- Content appearing on the Libraries' website that was created by faculty and staff as part of their employment with OSUL (e.g. LibGuides)
- Documents that may be linked to or hosted on the Libraries' document registry (e.g. handouts)
- Administrative, policy, and procedural documents accessible through the website

What is excluded from the license?

The Creative Commons license does NOT apply to materials for which the Libraries do not own the copyright (or do not have permission to sublicense). This includes:

- Third party materials (e.g. the Libraries' digital collections)
- Traditional scholarly works by OSUL faculty (Note: Faculty must take action regarding materials for which they own the copyright; see below under "Action Needed")

The CC BY license also does NOT apply to:

- Photographs that contain easily identifiable images of faculty, staff, or students.

Why Creative Commons?

Applying an open license such as the CC BY license to OSUL web content helps to promote the following goals and outcomes:

- Increase overall use and dissemination of OSUL created materials
- Ensure that OSUL is credited as the source of the material
- Support Libre Open Access by removing at least some permissions barriers
- Promote OSUL as a leader within the profession by adopting a proactive, progressive approach to copyright management, and making materials available for reuse and adaptation by other libraries

- Reduce permissions requests by making OSUL created materials available for use under unambiguous terms

ACTION NEEDED: Faculty and non-employee students must take action regarding works for which they own the copyright. They may agree to participate in the CC BY license or they may clearly label materials for which they own the copyright with an alternate rights statement. They only need to complete the form once, but they are responsible on an ongoing basis to apply an alternate rights statement to any materials they do not wish to include in the CC BY license. NOTE: Visitors viewing OSUL webpages will likely presume that materials are included in the CC BY license if the materials are not labeled with an alternate rights statement or are not listed among the excluded materials. ***Please see the instructions (including sample alternate rights statement) and fill out the brief form on this page. ***

Questions or Comments? See the CarmenWiki page for this initiative and/or contact the Copyright Resources Center at libcopyright@osu.edu or 614-688-5849.

Celebrate National Fossil Day

The Orton Geological Museum and the Orton Memorial Library of Geology are celebrating National Fossil Day, Wednesday, October 14, with a special exhibit. Over a dozen large fossils that normally are out of sight in drawers, cabinets and the basement of the Museum are now on display in the Geology Library, which has related books available for viewing and checkout by the OSU Community, through November 1st. The Library is open 2-6 Sundays (see other times). The Museum is open 8-5 M-F and will also be open Sunday, October 18 from 1 – 5pm. For more information call 614 292-6896 or 614 292-2428.

Planned Sierra Downtime

The Libraries IT Division will be performing maintenance on the Sierra server on Thursday, October 15 beginning at 5 pm. Sierra and the library catalog will be unavailable for approximately 5 hours. We will send out an update should that time be extended for any reason. We ask that anyone experiencing an issue with Sierra report it immediately to Hub (go.osu.edu/hub).

The IFLA WLIC 2016 Volunteer Application Website is Open!

Are you interested in serving as a volunteer at the International Federation of Library Associations and Institutions (IFLA) World Library & Information Congress (WLIC) here in Columbus next August? If so, visit the IFLA Volunteer Website at <http://go.osu.edu/iflavolunteer>, review the explanatory text, and choose the “Apply Here” option, which will bring you to the Application itself.

Although we expect that the application will remain open from now until early Spring 2016, we anticipate considerable interest in IFLA participation. So if you are keen to volunteer at the World Congress next August, we urge you to apply soon.

Questions? If so, send them to Wes Boomgaarden, IFLA WLIC 2016 Volunteer Coordinator, at boomgaarden.1@osu.edu or phone him at 8-1013.

OPERS changes coming for rehired retirees

Employees of Ohio State who are retired through OPERS and eligible to participate in OPERS health care should pay special attention to OPERS communications regarding 2016 health care open enrollment. OPERS is making changes to how its retirees will receive health care benefits in 2016. For some OPERS retirees, the cost of their OPERS medical coverage may increase if they remain employed by an OPERS employer in 2016.

The OPERS health benefit changes are effective January 1, 2016, and retirees have to make their OPERS benefit selections by October 31, 2015. OPERS offers in-person and online seminars for retirees. For details and questions, please visit: opers.org or call 1-800-222-PERS (7377).

Staples Contract

Purchasing negotiated a new contract with Staples for office supplies. The purchasing department confirmed that all office supplies will come from Staples from now on (even though eStores is still listed as OfficeMax). There is a new eStores catalog for Staples that will be open for use later this year.

Executive Committee Meeting Minutes - September 1, 2015

Painting Restoration – Brent Lewis

There was a discussion about the paintings in the Geology Library and the presidential portraits in Thompson Library. Brent Lewis shared concerns about the inconsistent manner in which the paintings are protected (some have glass covering and some do not).

Brent has secured quotes from two vendors to add an appropriate and consistent thin glass cover to protect the paintings. The paintings in Geology are already in storage due to construction in Orton Hall. We will proceed with those first. The portraits in Thompson Library will be scheduled for summer 2016.

Next steps are to finalize quotes for the restoration of three slightly damaged paintings in the Geology Library; then move forward with the covering and restoration, as well as communication of the activity to the appropriate campus partners.

IFLA Debrief

Diedrichs updated the group on activities during IFLA in Cape Town, South Africa. There will be a blog posting with specific details about the conference later this month.

BPL Plan

Beginning this semester, BPL will have extended hours (until 11pm). Appropriate marketing will be undertaken to advertise BPL as an alternative to 18th Ave. and Thompson Library. This pilot will be reviewed at the end of fall semester to determine hours for spring.

Undergraduate Library Experience

Armstrong shared a draft proposal for a new undergraduate library experience and research prize. She will take feedback to the Teaching & Learning Committee and the program will be implemented on a pilot basis this year.

TDA

Diedrichs shared information about TDA@OhioState including information about faculty members that have been hired to assist with Translational Data Analytics. Alison Armstrong has been named to the TDA Faculty Advisory Board.

OhioLINK ILS

Diedrichs will participate in the OhioLINK directors meeting later this month where the OhioLINK RFI for the ILS will be discussed. Exec discussed the possible next steps in this process to inform discussion at the OhioLINK LAC meeting.

2016-2020 Capital Planning Cycle

New potential projects to explore further for inclusion on the list include:

- 3rd Module at the Book Depository.

- Renovating classrooms and office space on the lower level in the 18th Avenue Library.
- Renovation of staff and public space at University Archives.

No decisions have been made regarding these potential projects, but they will be included on the annual capital planning documents required by FOD as possibilities.

Position Discussion

Exec approved filling a Developer (A&P) position in the IT Division.

Managing Students: Session Rescheduled

Due to a scheduling overlap with the LeGOMAKE workshop, Libraries HR has moved the October 22nd Managing Students session to Monday, October 26th from 2:00pm to 3:30pm in 165 Thompson. The change was made to encourage individuals to participate in both the LeGOMAKE workshop and Managing Students sessions. We hope faculty and staff will be able attend each of these training sessions which support ongoing professional development. The Managing Student Appointments session scheduled on Wednesday, October 21st from 2:30pm to 4:00pm will remain the same. We appreciate your understanding and apologize for any inconvenience.

Ask Us - Live Chat widget now available in LibGuides

LibGuides creators, add a widget that allows users to interact with the reference department's LibAnswers live chat from within your guide. Simply reuse this existing widget from its home on the Commonly Linked Resource & Services guide (<http://guides.osu.edu/common>), under the Reference section. Contact Diana Ramey (ramey.51@osu.edu) or Robyn Ness (ness.16@osu.edu) with questions.

Now available in LibGuides: Off Campus Sign-In widget

LibGuides creators, you can now add a widget to your guides that allows off campus users to easily sign in with the proxy server. You can share this widget from its home on the Commonly Linked Resource & Services guide (<http://guides.osu.edu/common>), under the Search Boxes + Off Campus Sign-In section. Contact Diana Ramey (ramey.51@osu.edu) or Robyn Ness (ness.16@osu.edu) with questions.

OSUL Training Committee Presents: Lunch & Learn: Creative Commons

Please join the Copyright Resources Center for a lunch and learn about Creative Commons (CC). The session will introduce CC and explore how CC licenses benefit creators and users of licensed material. These licenses contribute to affordability and the development and use of Open Educational Resources, a particularly relevant topic for us in light of the university-wide focus on affordable learning. Bring your lunch and your questions!

The lunch and learn will be offered twice:

- October 22, 2015
Thompson Library, Room 204 (Please note change in room number)
12 -1 p.m.
- October 29, 2015
Libraries' Tech Center, Room 122
12 -1 p.m.

Please RSVP at the following link: <http://goo.gl/forms/ciSlGzvOga>

Open Access Publishing: Potentials and Pitfalls

Wednesday, October 21, 12 – 1 p.m., Room 165 Thompson Library

As part of International Open Access Week (October 19-25, 2015), the Research Commons will be hosting a discussion forum about the potential benefits of open access publishing as well as tips for avoiding questionable publishing practices. The discussion forum is primarily aimed at OSU faculty, postdocs, and graduate students so please share the description and registration information below with your respective departments. As always OSUL faculty and staff are also welcome to attend!

Register: <https://library.osu.edu/researchcommons/event/open-access-discussion/>

Managing@OSU Workshop

Managers can register for the updating “Managing@OSU” workshop now through BuckeyeLearn. The updated workshop is 3 hours and is available on 10/30. This workshop for new managers can help you build strong relationships with your team, foster accountability, describe your management philosophy and values and find resources and learning opportunities for yourself and your team. Visit go.osu.edu/BuckeyeLearn to register.

Faculty RECOGNITION PROGRAM

The University Libraries, Office of Academic Affairs, and the Faculty Club will host the 13th annual Faculty Recognition Program reception Thursday, November 12, 3:30 – 5:30 PM at the Faculty Club Grand Lounge. Remarks from the Provost Steinmetz and Vice Provost & Director of University Libraries Carol Pitts Diedrichs will begin around 4 p.m.

Plan on attending this special program and honoring University Libraries faculty members:

Promotion to Associate Professor with Tenure

- Dracine Hodges
- Belinda Hurley

Tenure

- Meris Mandernach

Welcome

Gallery Assistant Amy Chalmers has joined the Billy Ireland Cartoon Library and Museum staff as Gallery Assistant. In this role, Amy will support the exhibition program by assisting with marketing and PR, exhibit preparation and installation, and managing the gallery on Saturdays. Please welcome Amy to University Libraries.

Dennis Morrow has joined the staff of Planning and Administration as Facilities Support Services Specialist. In this role, Dennis will provide day-to-day supervision of security operations at multiple library locations. Dennis will primarily work a second shift schedule, Sunday-Thursday, 3-11 p.m., and occasional weekend hours.

Job Postings

Research Commons IT Specialist

The Ohio State University Libraries seeks a dynamic, innovative, and service-oriented individual for the position of Research Commons IT Specialist within the Infrastructure Support department of the Libraries' Information Technology division. IT Infrastructure Support provides hardware and software services to The Ohio State University Libraries for both the regular desktop work environment and, increasingly, for intensive, specialized computing solutions. Reporting to the Head of Infrastructure Support, the successful candidate will serve as the primary IT liaison to the new Research Commons service point (<https://library.osu.edu/researchcommons>), provide expertise and advice on solutions to technology intensive computing needs, and educate and train IT and Research Commons colleagues on specialized hardware and software for a complete support environment. Please be aware that travel reimbursement and relocation assistance will not be offered with this position.

Target hiring range $18.27 - $21.64/ hour. Applications will be accepted beginning October 3, 2015 through October 18, 2015. For additional position information and to apply, please visit: <https://www.jobsatosu.com/>, requisition # 412436.

Office Associate Special Collections – Temporary

The Office Associate organizes and coordinates operations, procedures, and resources that facilitate collaboration, streamlining, and efficient customer service in Thompson Library Special Collections. Provides operational support services for the Thompson Library Special Collections Head, curators, staff, research fellows, and other patrons.

The Office Associate will be the first contact for incoming calls, invoices, e-requests, supply ordering, acquisition order submission, event support, equipment inventory and maintenance. Currently, these activities are scattered across the SC THO faculty and staff, leading to duplicative effort, confusion for patrons and library partners, and a significant lack of efficiency. This position will assume much of the current assistant curatorial staff redundant administrative responsibilities, allowing existing staff members to focus on access activities and better utilize their professional expertise. This position will reduce duplication of efforts and create a more consistent approach to our operational and fiscal functions. This position may require some evening and weekend hours. Please be aware that travel reimbursement and relocation assistance will not be offered with this position. This is a 1 year temporary appointment.

Target hiring range $15.38-$18.75/hour. Applications will be accepted beginning October 12, 2015 through October 18, 2015. For additional position information and to apply, please visit: <https://www.jobsatosu.com/>, requisition # 412701.
