JOSEPH CARL BREIL'S
Original Collection of DRAMATIC MUSIC
for
MOTION PICTURE PLAYS

In offering Breil's Original Collection of Dramatic Music to leaders, we are certain that this is the greatest, most valuable and practical collection of Original Dramatic Music ever offered to the musical public. There isn't a single number contained in the collection that can be dispensed with. Mr. Breil has had ten years experience in active association with Daniel Frohman, Adolph Zukor and D. W. Griffith's, the latter producer of the "Birth of a Nation" and "Intolerance", two of the largest films ever shown; for both of these productions Mr. Breil arranged and composed the score. On these facts alone we feel that in offering this series to the Pianist and Leader a broader and more musical conception of film interpretation is exhibited than in the so called Movie Picture Music now being offered.

The numbers contained in this collection are loose leaf and are indispensable to musicians playing for Vaudeville, Drama or Photoplays. They are arranged that they can be played as a piano or organ solo, or by any orchestral combination either large or small; there is no turning of pages, no searching for the proper number; you arrange the loose sheets just as you want them to follow the act, reel or show and you have them right there on the spot.

| No. 8. | AGITATO MISTEROUSO & DYNAMITOSO
(A)  For Scenes of Fear, Inner Dread, Hopelessness, Premonition of Doom, etc., with (B) an Overture of Despair or Indignation, a desperate Appeal, followed by (C) an utter Sense of Hopelessness, or a calm and soothing Aftermath.
No. 6. | MISTEROUSO S LAMENTOSO
(A)  Fear, Doubt, Trepidation, Haunting Scenes or Memories, which bring on (B) Despair, Sadness or Grief, followed by (C) Resignation or Consolation.
No. 5. | MOLTO AGITATO
