

ERRATA

An article appearing in Volume 22, number 3 (2007) of the Journal, entitled The Justice Bazaar: Dispute Resolution Through Emergent Private Ordering as a Superior Alternative to Authoritarian Court Bureaucracy by Arthur B. Pearlstein, contained significant passages taken without attribution or written authorization, from work by Scott A. Landers, “Rules and the Concept of a Rule in Law and Legal Theory,” a doctoral dissertation submitted and copyrighted in 1991 (available through UMI Dissertation Publishing). A previous errata printed in Volume 25, number 2 (2010) retracted portions of “The Justice Bazaar.” At Mr. Pearlstein’s recent request, the Journal hereby retracts and withdraws in its entirety The Justice Bazaar: Dispute Resolution Through Emergent Private Ordering as a Superior Alternative to Authoritarian Court Bureaucracy, 22 OHIO ST. J. ON DISP. RESOL. 739 (2007).

