CONTENTS

Articles

Judicial Ethics and Judicial Settlement Practices: Time for Two Strangers to Meet
   Honorable John C. Cratsley ................................................................. 569

Anchoring, Information, Expertise, and Negotiation: New Insights from Meta-Analysis
   Dan Orr & Chris Guthrie ................................................................. 597

Technology Mediated Dispute Resolution (TMDR): A New Paradigm for ADR
   David Allen Larson ........................................................................... 629

“Arasoi O Mizu Ni Nagasu” or “Let the Dispute Flow to Water”: Pedagogical Methods for Teaching Arbitration Law in American and Japanese Law Schools
   Paul M. Secunda ................................................................................ 687

Take It or Leave It. Lump It or Grieve It: Designing Mediator Complaint Systems that Protect Mediators, Unhappy Parties, Attorneys, Courts, the Process, and the Field
   Paula M. Young ................................................................................ 721

Notes

Privatization and Self-Determination in the Circuits: Utilizing the Private Sector Within the Evolving Framework of Federal Appellate Mediation
   Shawn P. Davison ............................................................................ 953

Can Arbitration Play a Saving Role in Women’s Health? The Use of Arbitration in the OB/GYN Specialty
   Jennie K. Ferguson ............................................................................ 1005

Mandatory Mediation: A Better Way to Address Status Offenses
   Tracy J. Simmons ........................................................................... 1043

Recent Developments

Discover Bank v. Superior Court of Los Angeles, 36 Cal. 4th 148 (2005) ........ 1093