Disability Studies Quarterly is published for the Society for Disability Studies. The Quarterly is a multidisciplinary and international journal of interest to social scientists, scholars in the humanities, disability rights advocates, and others concerned with the problems of people with disabilities. The purpose of the Quarterly is to provide a place where people from diverse backgrounds can share ideas and to engage in dialogues that cut across disciplinary backgrounds and substantive concerns. The Quarterly is committed to developing theoretical and practical knowledge about disability and to promoting the full and equal participation of persons with disabilities in society.

Disability Studies Quarterly is published four times a year. Each volume is the same as a calendar year. The Quarterly is produced for the Society for Disability Studies and the subscription price for the Quarterly is included in the dues for the Society from the year 2000 onward. All subscription correspondence must be sent to the national office of the Society: Society for Disability Studies, c/o Professor Carol Gill, Department of Disability and Human Development, University of Illinois at Chicago (MC 626), 1640 Roosevelt Road #236, Chicago, IL 60608-6904 or <bean@uic.edu>.
