

Editor's Preface

The theme of this issue of Disability Studies Quarterly is the Changing Images of Disability. It was conceived and put together by Petra Kupperts of the Manchester Metropolitan University in the United Kingdom. DSQ is truly becoming an international journal through its guest editors and authors. Since disability is a world wide phenomenon this trend is very appropriate. Petra's work for this issue is outstanding. She is to be congratulated.

Please remember that all matters concerning subscriptions and production are handled by the national headquarters of the Society. The Society's office may be reached (voice or TTY) at 312-996-4664, by fax at 312-413-2918, or by email at <cg16@uic.edu>. The office's mail address is:

Society for Disability Studies
c/o Professor Carol Gill
Department of Disability and Human Development
University of Illinois at Chicago (MC 626)
1640 Roosevelt Road, #236
Chicago, IL 60608-6904

In addition I remind you that DSQ is now paged continuously through the four print issues. The pagination in the email and disk versions will not conform with the print version.

In September 1994 (three months before his death) Irv Zola began plans to publish Meaningful Relationships/Moments in Time, an autobiographical collection of 21 short stories all of which carry a disability theme. A copy of this treasure may be obtained in exchange for donations ($10 is suggested) to Boston Self Help Center, or to Friends of Howe Library (where Irv's books and papers are being archived for use by the public), or to Disability Studies Quarterly. Send your check to Irv's wife: Judy Norsigian, 43 Waban Hill Rd. N., Newton, MA 02167. Please remember to include your name and address.

David Pfeiffer, Editor