Special thanks to Debbie Hylton, Michele Newton and Carol Peirano, the College of Law secretaries, who were so helpful in the completion of this issue.

Also, special thanks to Carolyn Fisher and Debbie Hylton for their work on Issue 7:3, the Bibliography Issue.
The Ohio State Journal on Dispute Resolution gratefully acknowledges the contribution which made this issue possible.

ESTABROOK CHARITABLE TRUST

A trust in memory of the late Hubert A. and Gladys C. Estabrook. The trust is dedicated to promoting legal education in Ohio. Mr. Estabrook was a prominent Dayton attorney who was a founder of Estabrook, Finn & McKee which later merged with the law firm of Porter, Wright, Morris & Arthur.

Special thanks to the late trustee John O. Henry, Esquire, whose support for our Journal made this third issue possible.
The OHIO STATE JOURNAL ON DISPUTE RESOLUTION is published three times a year with intermittent symposium issues. This year a third issue has been added. This issue comprises a bibliographic listing of articles and books written on alternative dispute resolution. The primary purpose of the JOURNAL ON DISPUTE RESOLUTION is to aid the exploration of alternative forms of dispute resolution. The publication serves as an exchange of information between scholars, who develop and comment upon theoretical models of dispute resolution, and practitioners, who are involved in implementing models as actual arbitrators, mediators, and judges. Views expressed herein are those of the authors and do not necessarily reflect the views of the Editors or Staff.

Subscription rates through the 1992 school year are $15.00 per year for U.S. subscribers and $18.00 for foreign subscribers. Back issues are also available. The new Bibliography issue (7:3) can be purchased for $8.00 by subscribers, and $30.00 by non-subscribers. All business or subscription inquiries should be directed to the Business Manager at the above address. Subscriptions are automatically renewed unless a request for discontinuance is received. Changes of address should include both old and new addresses with zip codes.

The JOURNAL ON DISPUTE RESOLUTION welcomes the submission of articles, book reviews, and correspondence. Manuscripts should be typed, triple-spaced, and sent in duplicate to the Editorial Office at the above address. Footnotes should be typed, triple-spaced, and separate from the text. Citations should conform to the current edition of THE BLUEBOOK: A UNIFORM SYSTEM OF CITATION, published by the Harvard Law Review Association. Manuscripts will be returned upon request if a stamped, self-addressed envelope is provided.

THE JOURNAL ON DISPUTE RESOLUTION advertising rates per issue are: full page inside cover: $120.00; full page: $65.00.

Printed on Recycled Paper.
