ANNOUNCING: ADR BIBLIOGRAPHY ON DISKETTE

The Ohio State Journal on Dispute Resolution (JDR), now in its tenth year as a leading journal in the area of alternative dispute resolution, is pleased to announce that the annual Bibliography Issue is now available on diskette in a database format. The diskette contains all the entries in the 1989 through 1993 Bibliography Issues and Dispute Resolution: A Selected Bibliography, 1987-88 edition, which is the work of Carole L. Hinchcliff. Ms. Hinchcliff is an Acquisitions and Collection Development Librarian at the Ohio State University College of Law Library. The diskette contains a comprehensive bibliography of over 3,000 articles written in the various fields of alternative dispute resolution from 1987-1993, and includes a brief summary of each article's contents. Each article is also assigned approximately four to ten search terms which identify the areas of ADR the article covers. Over 150 search terms are used, covering all different forms and applications of ADR. The original search term list was developed by Frank E.A. Sander, Nancy H. Rogers, Larry Ray, Charles E. Wilson and Carole L. Hinchcliff.

The diskette will be provided as an ASCII file. An ASCII file can be searched using a large number of word-processing and database programs; the price of these programs depends on the degree of sophistication required for the desired searches. The Ohio State University College of Law Library searches this database with MemoryMate™ software, which retails for about $30. The JDR will not provide any technical support; all technical support should be provided by the software manufacturer for the search program you choose. A subscription for the diskette and annual updates will provide the ultimate comprehensive resource in this fast-growing area of the law. The cost of the 1987-1993 Bibliography diskette will be $30.00 for subscribers to the JDR, annual updates at $15.00; non-subscribers may purchase the diskette for $50.00, annual updates at $30.00, either through the JDR or through the American Bar Association. If you, your firm, or library is interested in procuring this indispensable ADR research tool, please send the information on the opposite page to the address listed.

The Ohio State Journal on Dispute Resolution (JDR) is providing its Bibliography Issues on computer diskette in an ASCII format to be used on IBM and compatible computers. Although many word-processing and database programs will search a database in ASCII format, the JDR has not tested its diskette on these programs, nor does the JDR make any warranty, express or implied, INCLUDING THE IMPLIED WARRANTY OF MERCHANTABILITY, that any particular program will be compatible with the Bibliography diskette. The liability of the JDR for any reason, including, but not limited to, a defective diskette or incompatibility with any search software, is limited to replacement of the diskette or a refund of its purchase price. The JDR will not be responsible for any technical support, which should be provided by the manufacturer of the search software used by the purchaser.

Editorial Office: Ohio State Journal on Dispute Resolution
55 West 12th Avenue
Columbus, Ohio 43210-1391
(614) 292-7170

The Ohio State Journal on Dispute Resolution is published three times a year with intermittent symposium issues. The third issue comprises a bibliographic listing of articles and books written on alternative dispute resolution. The primary purpose of the Ohio State Journal on Dispute Resolution is to aid the exploration of alternative forms of dispute resolution. The publication serves as an exchange of information between scholars, who develop and comment upon theoretical models of dispute resolution, and practitioners, who are involved in implementing models as actual arbitrators, mediators, and judges. Views expressed herein are those of the authors and do not necessarily reflect the views of the Editors or Staff.

Subscription rates through the 1994-95 academic year are $25.00 per year for U.S. subscribers and $28.00 for foreign subscribers. Back issues are available through the William S. Hein Co. The 1989 Bibliography Issue (Vol. 7:3) can be purchased for $8.00 by subscribers, and $30.00 by non-subscribers. All business or subscription inquiries should be directed to the Business Manager at the above address. Subscriptions are automatically renewed unless a request for discontinuance is received. Changes of address should include both old and new addresses with zip codes.

The Ohio State Journal on Dispute Resolution welcomes the submission of articles, book reviews, and correspondence. Manuscripts should be typed, triple-spaced, and sent to the Editorial Office at the above address. Citations should conform to the current edition of The Bluebook: A Uniform System of Citation, published by the Harvard Law Review Association. Manuscripts will be returned upon request if a stamped, self-addressed envelope is provided.

The Ohio State Journal on Dispute Resolution advertising rates per issue are: full page inside cover: $120.00; full page: $65.00.
