About the OSU SPP

Mission:

To develop a comprehensive, effective, culturally responsive, technologically advanced, and sustainable system of suicide prevention at the Columbus and the five regional campuses of The Ohio State University.

• Suicide is preventable
  • 94% of American adults "would take action to help someone close to them who was thinking about suicide" (AFSP, 2018)

• “Campus culture of caring”
  • An environment that supports help-seeking; community protective factors

• Three pillars of our program
• Advocacy, education, and outreach
• Shared campus responsibility

REACH© Suicide Prevention Gatekeeper Trainings

A training Program to help the OSU community to prevent suicide by teaching faculty, staff & students how to...

- Recognize warning signs
- Engage with empathy
- Ask directly about suicide
- Communicate hope
- Help suicidal individuals access care
Partnering With REACH© Trainers

• Trainers undergo rigorous training
  • 42 staff/faculty trainers, 30 student trainers (PROs)
  • Provide REACH© training, minimum of 4 per year
  • Serve in community as advocates, ambassadors to SPP

• Supporting trainers as partners in suicide prevention
  • Support meetings, recognition
  • Continuing education meetings
  • Empower trainers with knowledge and vocabulary to be an advocate in their environment

• Trainers are valuable allies in Suicide Prevention
  • Major catalysts for REACH© trainings requests
  • Reducing stigma and disseminating information
REACH© Training Statistics

Promising growth: AU 2017 to AU 2018

• AU17 61 trainings, AU18 over 90 trainings (32% increase)
  • average 5.5 trainings/week
• AU17 1,300 trained, AU18 over 2,000 trained (35% increase)
• Total over 15,000 certified OSU REACH© Suicide Prevention Gatekeepers

This semester:

• 52+ trainings scheduled, more requests incoming

One year after training...

• 89% of participants have attempted to intervene with someone they were concerned about
• Vast majority report that would intervene if they felt confident
• Vast majority report that REACH© training was helpful in increasing overall knowledge about suicide risk and how to refer others to help
REACH© Trainings: Columbus Campus

- Field requests from entities on campus to provide trainings
- Partner with undergraduate student group Peers REACHing Out (PRO) to train undergraduate advocates to provide trainings
- Communication through Carmen Canvas
- Open trainings offered throughout the semester
  - 4 undergraduate, 2 staff/faculty/grad and professional students
- Tabling and attendance at outreach events
REACH© Trainings: Regional Campuses

- Supporting the mission of the OSU SPP
- Regional Campus REACH© Coordinators (RRCs) on each campus
- 12 certified trainers
- Personal page on Carmen page for trainers
- Attendance at meetings at Columbus and regional locations
- Increase in trainings on all OSU campuses
REACH© Across Borders: International Student Organizations

• Partner with various OSU international student organizations to create customized mental health workshops and initiatives

• Have hosted cross-cultural cooking events, exam wellness study packs, bilingual suicide prevention trainings and mental health awareness events

• In the past, collaborated with Indian Students Association, IUFO (Chinese), MASA (Malaysian) and independent Chinese student focus group
RUOK? and Student Development Initiatives

The Graduate School, Office of Military and Veterans Services (OMVS), and undergraduate student development
RUOK? Stress and Depression Questionnaire

- Online ISP provided in collaboration with the AFSP
- RUOK? is a platform where students can check-in with their stress levels and current mental health needs
- Targeted students are sent invitations through email to participate, participation is voluntary and the entire process is anonymous
- Students who elect to take the Stress and Depression questionnaire are provided a personalized response from a licensed professional counselor
- Students may dialogue with the counselor to access referrals to campus and community resources to address their mental health needs and suicide risk
RUOK? Buckeyes: The Graduate School

• Macro level: partner with the OSU Graduate School to advocate for suicide prevention efforts in graduate programs, reduce stigma for help-seeking, and participate in ongoing conversation about graduate student needs and wellness at OSU

• Micro level: partner with individual graduate programs to deliver the ISP to graduate students, and collaborate and strategize with graduate program coordinators to provide for student needs
RUOK? Buckeyes: The Graduate School

• Outreach and other activities:
  • Quarterly meetings with an Associate Dean at The Graduate School
  • Regular communication with graduate programs
  • REACH© trainings for staff in The Graduate School
  • Open REACH© trainings for faculty and graduate students held twice throughout the semester
  • Informational session provided at Council of Graduate Students (CGS)
  • GA participation in CGS Student Wellness Committee
  • Tabling and attendance at outreach events
RUOK? Buckeyes: Some Numbers

Promising Growth...

• Fall Semester Partners:
  • AU16: 10
  • AU17: 13

Undergraduate Students: BCAS

- Originally formed by students to create RUOK? Day event
- Open-membership
- Meetings include mental health discussions, activities, speakers, and event planning
Undergraduate Students: BCAS

• Organizes RUOK? Day for over 1,200 participants
• Hosts several outreach events like Survivors' Luminary and SemiColon Project
• Student-driven interest group
• Students select most of content
• Guidance is more relaxed
• Advisor oversees event plans, etc.
Undergraduate Students: PROs

• Initially developed by suicide prevention program staff
• Application & interview process to join group
• Group focused on student advocacy and professional development
• Members trained as REACH© trainers to provide gatekeeper trainings to their peers
Undergraduate Students: PROs

• Last year trained over 1,100 participants in 51 REACH© trainings
• Hosted 2nd annual REACH© 5K race
• Participated in various campus outreach events
• Advisor mentorship is more "hands on"
• Graded development through initial membership
• Senior members mentor new members
