

MONTHLY Memo

APRIL 1990

Friends Helping Friends

Frank Hill's daughter, Terri Kaufman, is undergoing treatment for cancer at University Hospital in Columbus. Because of the bone marrow transplant, she needs a large quantity of blood. Your donation of blood would be greatly appreciated. The Lima Red Cross is having two blood donor days in April - Tuesdays, April 3, 10 a.m.-4 p.m., and April 17, 1-7 p.m. at the Chapter House at 610 Collett Street. All blood types are needed. Each donation made for Terri adds to her supply. Please mention Terri's name when you make your donation.

Noon Entertainment Series

All programs begin at noon and will be held in 160 Reed Hall unless otherwise noted.

Tuesday, April 3 - Dr. Fuji Kawashima, professor of Oriental History at BGSU, will present a lecture and slides on "Historical Perspective of Japanese Art and Culture."

Tuesday, April 10 - The Lima Campus and Tri-Moraine Audubon Society will bring nationally-known naturalist and film maker, Karl Maslowski to the Reed Hall auditorium for a 7:30 p.m. color film presentation, "Wildlife by Day and By Night." A reception will follow the screening.

Thursday, April 12 - Mad River Theatre Works will present "Riverboatn", a picture of life along the river in song.

Tuesday, April 17 - Pianist Ed Zickafoose will play classical pieces as well as his own original hits.

Tuesday, April 24 - Dr. Eric Juterbock (Zoology - OSU Lima) will take us to the Florida Everglades via slides of this unique area.

Friday, April 27 - From the Blue Ridge Mountain area of Virginia comes "No Strings Attached," an exciting four-piece string band playing the dulcimer, mandolin, and psaltery.

"Our Wonderful World"

"Our Wonderful World" is an exhibit of nature photography by Dr. Eric Juterbock and Dr. Michael Cunningham (Zoology - OSU Lima). An opening reception will follow Eric's slide presentation on April 10, 7:30 p.m.

The exhibit can be viewed in 160 Reed Hall on the following dates:

Saturday, April 21 - 12-2
Sunday, April 22 - 2-4
Tuesday, April 24 - 11-12
Thursday, April 26 - 11-1
Thursday, May 3 - 11-1

Mark Your Calendar Now!

The annual Lima Campus Recognition Award Dinner will be held Friday, May 18 at 6 p.m. in the Reed Hall cafeteria. A list of recipients will be sent out later this month. There will be additions to the format this year. The Outstanding Teaching Awards for both LTC and Ohio State Lima will be awarded during this dinner as well as a new award for Support Services. Recipients will also have the opportunity to attend the Lima Campus production of The Art of Dining at 8 p.m. All award recipients will be treated to dinner and admission to the play with guests paying a nominal fee. Be looking for further details.

Spring Production -- The Art of Dining

Directed by Joe Brandesky, the Art of Dining focuses on diners in a small, elegant gourmet restaurant who act out their own private dramas over dinner. The curtain rises at 8 p.m. on Friday and Saturday, May 18 and 19 in the Reed Hall auditorium. For more information, contact Joe at extension 369.

Catherine Crier To Speak in Lima

Catherine Crier, CNN news anchor and former Texas judge, will be the speaker at St. Rita's annual dinner meeting on Wednesday, April 4. The dinner will begin at 6 p.m. with Crier's presentation at 8:15 p.m. Tickets for the dinner and speaker are $25/person; for the presentation alone - $5/person. The dinner will be held at the Civic Center. For more information, call the Chamber of Commerce at 222-6045.

Doublecheck Those Phone Numbers!

Recently, we have received complaints from individuals who have received calls for OSU Lima or LTC. We were able to trace the problem to a publication which incorrectly listed the campus phone numbers. To prevent this from recurring, please verify the phone numbers any time they are used. Thanks for your help!

UFSAP on Campus - April 12

Frank Marlor from the University Faculty/Staff Assistance Program will be on campus Thursday, April 12, 9:30 a.m.-4 p.m. in TEL 137. Mr. Marlor will be available at this time to discuss any work-related or personal problems you would like to address. To arrange an appointment, call Mr. Marlor at 5/2-4000.

The Smart Choice

The Mobile Mammography Unit will be in the visitors' parking lot in front of Galvin Hall on Wednesday, April 25, 9 a.m.-4:30 p.m. A mammography screening will take approximately ten minutes and cost $55. To schedule a mammogram, contact Mobile Mammography at 614/293-4455. Make the smart choice - call today!
