DISTINGUISHED LECTURES ON THE STATE OF INTERNET LAW

How the Internet Unmakes Law
Dr. Mary Anne Franks, University of Miami School of Law

Spyware vs. Spyware
Prof. James Grimmelman, Cornell Law School

SYMPOSIUM ON ARTIFICIAL INTELLIGENCE & THE FUTURE OF TAX LAW

Legal Calculators and the Tax System
Prof. Joshua D. Blank, UC Irvine School of Law &
Prof. Leigh Osofsky, North Carolina Law School

Taxation in the Age of Smart Contracts: the CryptoKitty Conundrum
Prof. Allison Christians, McGill University Faculty of Law

Form as Formalization
Dr. Sarah Lawsky, Northwestern Pritzker School of Law

TAXING ROBOTS

Tax Theory & Feral AI
Prof. Stephanie Hoffer, The Ohio State University

A Taxing Dilemma: Robot Taxes and the Challenges of Effective Taxation of AI, Automation, and Robotics in the Fourth Industrial Revolution
Robert Kovacev, Norton Rose Fullbright LLP

AI, THE LABOR MARKET, AND TAX

Does the Tax Code Favor Robots?
Prof. Daniel Hemel, University of Chicago Law School

Taxation and the Vanishing Labor Market in the Age of AI
Dr. Anton Korinek, Virginia Darden School of Business

AI IN TAX COMPLIANCE AND ENFORCEMENT

Analytical Challenges in Modern Tax Administration
Jeff Butler, Internal Revenue Service

Do Tax Compliance Robots Follow the Law?
Prof. Susan Morse, University of Texas School of Law